Animation and Visual Effects BS

Major: Animation and Visual Effects
Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 187.0

Co-op Options: One Co-op (Four years); Three Co-op (Five years) Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 10.0304 Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 27-1014

About the Program

The Animation & Visual Effects major provides students with the artistic, technological, story-telling, and design skills necessary to succeed as 3D animators and visual effects artists in the highly competitive entertainment, design, and communications industries.

Animation and Visual Effects has grown beyond its traditional applications in the entertainment industry. While many artists choose a career in film, television, and internet-based programming, animation production techniques are also widely used in medical research, engineering, virtual and augmented reality systems, immersive media, web content, the performing arts, interactive game systems, corporate communications, higher education, and more. The depth and complexity of this field necessitates a rigorous course of study.

To best prepare students for the demands of careers in these cutting-edge disciplines, the program provides a foundational understanding of design and technology with core courses in digital media, the option to choose between a six or eighteen-month co-op plan, and a curriculum of rigorous coursework covering specialized aspects of digital animation, visual effects, and immersive media. While courses are predominantly offered face-to-face on campus, we also offer a variety of virtual courses taught by a diverse range of professionals from across the nation, exposing students to a wider network of industry professionals and to the evolving climate of industry work, and engaging with students outside the campus boundaries. In this curriculum, students will learn the underlying principles of animation and advanced, industry-standard software and hardware technologies. The entire creative pipeline, from storyboarding to modeling and animation to rendering and compositing, is covered indepth, allowing students to experience all aspects of a production.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/faculty-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Dual/Accelerated Degrees

The accelerated degree program enables academically qualified students to earn both their bachelor's degree and a master's degree in digital media, graduating sooner than they would in traditional programs.

Current Drexel Animation and Visual Effects students may apply for the accelerated BS/MS degree through the Graduate College of Drexel University after completing 90.0 credits, but no more than 120.0 credits. Contact the Graduate College of Drexel University (http://www.drexel.edu/graduatecollege/) for further information.

Facilities

This major is based in the Westphal College's Digital Media Department, located in the Westphal College's URBN Center.

The central creative space for the department is the Animation Capture & Effects Lab (ACE-Lab), featuring a 1200-square-foot open studio space dedicated to digital media production. The studio features include a 25-foot by 17-foot green screen cyclorama, studio lighting and modifiers, HD/2k/4k camera systems, camera dolly, Vicon Vantage motion capture system, stereo-360 "VR Video" capture systems, room-scale VR tracking systems, and a full 360° Immersive Projection Dome among other resources.

Additional spaces surrounding the main studio include screening rooms, classrooms and computer labs featuring advanced graphics work stations, VR labs, research labs, meeting rooms, and faculty offices.

Architectural Studies BS

Major: Architectural Studies

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 181.0

Co-op Options: No Co-op (Four years); One Co-op (Four years) Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 04.0803 Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 25-1031

About the Program

The Bachelor of Science in Architectural Studies degree offers an introduction to architecture while affording students the flexibility to customize their studies based on their interest in the realm of design and the built environment. The program encompasses foundation courses in the applied and social sciences, the humanities, and a range of architecture courses to give students an understanding of the discipline. At the heart of the curriculum are the introductory-level design studios where students are challenged to apply their knowledge acquired from the above disciplines to consequential design problems.

As an art, a technical craft, and an ethical practice, architecture is the culturally responsible design and production of buildings that are functional, sustainable, inspiring, and responsive to their physical and social contexts. Students have the opportunity to reinforce their skills in the field by opting to participate in Drexel's signature co-op program, giving students the opportunity to work full-time in an architecture or design firm or related fields either locally, nationally, or internationally. The BS in Architectural Studies program prepares students for entry-level employment in architecture and in fields related to architecture; however, this program is not NAAB accredited and does not directly prepare for architectural licensure and registration. This degree is offered as a co-op and a non-co-op option. The degree modality is face-to-face; however, a small number of classes may be offered partially or fully in a virtual format. This allows us to attract talented experts from outside the greater Philadelphia area and provides more flexibility for students on coop or out working in the profession.

The pre-professional BS in Architectural Studies degree creates the foundation in the field of architecture as preparation for continued education in a professional NAAB-accredited graduate degree program. It is also the ideal foundation for specialization in other related disciplines such as Design Research, Urban Strategies, Interior Architecture & Design, Construction Management, Real Estate Development, and Digital Media & Animation, as well as pursuing an individualized path with coursework in other design disciplines within Westphal College. A 5-year accelerated BS/MS degree option between the BS in Architectural Studies and the MS in Urban Strategy (p. 110) is available to select students as well.

Note: Bachelor of Architecture (p. 12) vs Bachelor of Science in Architectural Studies and Architecture vs Architectural Engineering (http://catalog.drexel.edu/undergraduate/collegeofengineering/architecturalengineering/)

Because Drexel University offers three programs with "architecture" in their titles, it is useful to point out the significant differences between them:

• Architects design buildings to meet people's spatial, organizational, and aesthetic needs; they also coordinate the building design process. All states, the District of Columbia, and three U.S. territories (Guam, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands) require individuals to be licensed (registered) before they may call themselves architects or be contracted to provide architectural services. Many architecture school graduates work in the field even though they are not licensed or while they are in the process of becoming licensed, but they may not call themselves an architect.

A licensed architect is required to take legal responsibility for all work. Licensure requirements usually include:

- A professional degree in architecture (B.Arch. or M.Arch. degrees)
- A period of practical training or internship (AXP) (https://nam10.safelinks.protection.outlook.com/?url=https%3A%2F %2Fwww.ncarb.org%2Fgain-axp-experience&data=04%7C01%7Cua27%40drexel.edu%7C495cb30df9174f24baaa08d91a3685da %7C3664e6fa47bd45a696708c4f080f8ca6%7C0%7C0%7C637569643738944256%7CUnknown %7CTWFpbGZsb3d8eyJWljoiMC4wLjAwMDAiLCJQljoiV2luMzliLCJBTil6lk1haWwiLCJXVCI6Mn0%3D%7C1000&sdata=kXdqNq6pA %2Blqm2GFGHNObnmHb3LoX6y70yc2KBEu53l%3D&reserved=0)
- Passage of all divisions of the Architect Registration Examination (ARE) (https://nam10.safelinks.protection.outlook.com/?

  %2FmCAYnh52glzmHEhlaVFlFnTwadK1dgZR7x86U%3D&reserved=0)
- Architectural Engineers specialize in the design of engineering systems within buildings. Architectural engineers earn Bachelor of Science degrees and become professional engineers with the required experience and state examinations. Students whose interests are focused on the technological and engineering aspects of buildings should review Drexel's major in Architectural Engineering (http://catalog.drexel.edu/undergraduate/collegeofengineering/architecturalengineering/)offered by the College of Engineering.

The difference between the NAAB-accredited Bachelor of Architecture (B.Arch.) degree and the non-accredited Bachelor of Science in Architectural Studies (BS in Arch. Studies) degree:

Bachelor of Architecture (B.Arch.) degrees are designed to help you develop a comprehensive knowledge of the discipline of architecture, as well as foundational professional knowledge and a basic understanding of related fields. The NAAB-accredited B.Arch. degree at Drexel University is suitable for students who seek to earn a professional undergraduate degree that leads to professional licensure and affords them early exposure to architectural practice. While our B.Arch. degree does NOT participate in Drexel's signature co-op program, our students' opportunity to gain professional work experience and complete most or all of their AXP requirements prior to graduation far exceeds the practice exposure of co-op. A conventional B.Arch. degree is typically five years long. The 2+4 Option and the PT Evening Option take longer to complete due to the part-time model but allows an accelerated path to professional licensure due to parallel AXP completion and the option to participate in IPAL.

The Bachelor of Science in Architectural Studies (BS in Arch. Studies) degree is a four-year, pre-professional degree that is NOT accredited by NAAB. You will develop a comprehensive knowledge of the discipline of architecture, hone your design skills, and expand your architectural understanding. If you're unsure about becoming a licensed architect, this degree provides flexible avenues to combine your studies with related fields. Our BS in Architectural Studies degree can be a precursor to a dual BS/MS degree at Drexel University or a professional NAAB-accredited M.Arch. degree.

Admission Requirements

The admission requirements will be similar to those admitted to the Architecture Program: 1250+/- SAT scores and 3.3+/- high school GPA. Applicants should submit eight to 12 pieces of work in a variety of media that demonstrate a balance of technique and concept. Portfolio guidelines for the B.S. in Architectural Studies will follow the current Westphal College description. A writing supplement is required.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/faculty-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Opportunities

Drexel's Architecture Program offers distinct experiential-based learning models for students interested in combining an architectural education with other disciplines, like digital media, construction management, design, or other fields. The Bachelor of Science in Architectural Studies provides opportunities for interdisciplinary studies with flexible options to combine your studies with related fields. It can be a precursor to a dual BS/MS degree at Drexel University or a professional NAAB-accredited M.Arch. degree at another institution. Since 2023, a 5-year accelerated BS/MS degree between the BS in Architectural Studies and the MS in Urban Strategy is available to select students.

The BS in Architectural Science degree provides the opportunity to take advantage of Drexel's renowned co-op program, undertaken in the junior year. Co-op provides project-based, real-life experiences that help students enter the professional world, apply and hone their skills. Students may opt to do their co-op in Philadelphia or in another location of their choosing. Through a required course and career advisement services offered by the Steinbright Career Development Center, students develop the ability to market themselves and obtain jobs in leading firms worldwide.

Drexel is located in University City, a Philadelphia neighborhood that includes several centers of education and research. Philadelphia itself offers an unparalleled collection of landmark architecture and urban planning that spans 300 years of development. The region has always been home to architectural and design firms of national and international prominence. A rich and varied environment, combined with an accomplished and supportive professional community, makes Philadelphia an ideal laboratory for the study of architecture. All of the faculty in the program are active in the Philadelphia architecture community, many in leadership positions at firms.

Students seeking support for resume and portfolio development may schedule an appointment both with the Steinbright Career Development Center or with the Architecture Program faculty. Password-protected job listings exclusively for Drexel Architecture students can be found on the Opportunities for Students site (https://drexel.edu/westphal/academics/undergraduate/ARCH/Opportunities%20for%20Students/). (http://www.drexel.edu/westphal/academics/undergraduate/ARCH/Opportunities/)Firms seeking Drexel interns may contact students directly by finding student links to resume, work samples, and web portfolios at this site.

Facilities

The Architecture program is housed in URBN Center, an original Venturi Scott Brown building enhanced by an award-winning retrofit by MS&R Design, which includes a skylight-covered atrium, exposed beams, and open spaces. There are dedicated 24-hour studios with dedicated desks for full-time students, storage space, model-building opportunities, and a small lounge area.

The Department's offices, studios, and teaching facilities are located on floors 3, 3A, 4 and 4A of the URBN Center at 3501 Market Street. The Hybrid Making Lab (http://drexel.edu/westphal/about/overview/making_spaces/HybridMakingLab/) with laser cutters, 3-D printers, a CNC router, and small-scale power tools located on the first floor, is open to all Westphal students. It is equipped with state-of-the-art fabricating equipment accessible to students after required training. The Westphal Print Center is a full-service, low-cost facility located on the ground floor and is accessible to students from on and off-campus.

The URBN Annex houses a black box theater, screening room, and the Leonard Pearlstein Gallery (http://www.drexel.edu/pearlsteingallery/). Additional studio and classroom space in the Academic Building and the Design Arts Annex accommodate photography, basic design, painting, sculpture, and a full woodworking shop, including metal, resin, casting, CNC, and fabrication equipment with industrial-quality equipment.

Philadelphia, one of the nation's major design centers and a UNESCO World Heritage Site, gives interior design students the vitality of the contemporary arts at local galleries and easy access to many museums, libraries, and renowned buildings, as well as design centers located in Philadelphia, New York City, and Washington, D.C.

Architecture BArch

Major: Architecture

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Architecture (BArch)

Calendar Type: Quarter Minimum Required Credits: 227.0

Co-op Options: None

Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 04.0902 Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 17-1011

About the Program

The practice of architecture requires a unique skillset—creative thinking and aesthetic sensitivity balanced with technical knowledge, cultural understanding, and social responsibility. Critical thinking and communication skills are needed. Drexel's Bachelor of Architecture program encompasses foundation courses in the applied and social sciences, the humanities, and a wide range of professional architecture courses to prepare students for careers in architecture and related fields. At the heart of the curriculum are the design studios where students are challenged to apply their knowledge acquired from the above disciplines to consequential design problems.

Drexel's work/study program is an experiential-based learning model that complements and provides an alternative to traditional full-time academic architecture programs. The Drexel model provides a practical, high-quality education to those students who seek early exposure to daily architectural practice as well as an affordable alternative to students who could not otherwise be able to enter the profession.

At Drexel there are two paths to an accredited Bachelor of Architecture degree, serving two distinct populations: the 2+4 option and the part-time evening option.

Accreditation

In the United States, most registration boards require a degree from an accredited professional degree program as a prerequisite for licensure. The National Architectural Accrediting Board (http://www.naab.org/) (NAAB), which is the sole agency authorized to accredit US professional degree programs in architecture, recognizes three types of degrees: the Bachelor of Architecture, the Master of Architecture, and the Doctor of Architecture. A program may be granted an eight-year, three-year, or two-year term of accreditation, depending on the extent of its conformance with established educational standards.

Doctor of Architecture and Master of Architecture programs may require a pre-professional undergraduate degree in architecture for admission; however, the pre-professional degree is not, by itself, recognized as an accredited degree.

Drexel University, Antoinette Westphal College of Media Arts & Design, Department of Architecture + Interiors offers the following NAAB-accredited degree program(s):

2+4 Option: 6-year program (2 years full-time, 4 years part-time)

Bachelor of Architecture

227.0 undergraduate quarter-term credits

Part-Time Evening Option: 7-year part-time program

Bachelor of Architecture

227.0 undergraduate quarter-term credits

Next accreditation visit for both tracks: 2026/2027

About the 2+4 Option

The 2+4 option is suitable for well-prepared students entering the Bachelor of Architecture degree directly after graduating from high school. In this program, two years of full-time coursework address the basic principles of architectural design and satisfy fundamental Drexel University core requirements in the arts and sciences as well as those job-related skills that are needed for entry-level professional positions in architecture or related fields. A comprehensive review of performance will take place after each year to ensure that students are making sufficient progress in all areas. At the end of the sophomore year, a more thorough review of performance and advancement will be conducted to decide if the student is ready to move into the next phase of the accredited degree program in architecture. After successfully completing the minimum requirements of the full-time phase of Studio 2 and the co-requisite curriculum for that level, students are supported to find full-time employment in the building industry, including architecture firms, while continuing their academic program part-time in the evening for four additional years.

About the Part-time Evening Option

The part-time evening option is one of only two part-time evening architectural programs in the United States leading to the NAAB-accredited Bachelor of Architecture degree. Designed for non-traditional and transfer students, this program offers all courses part-time in the evening, enabling students to work full-time. The evening program sequence is seven years, but transfer students with university-level design credits can reduce its length by meeting specific program requirements through transcript and portfolio review. After completion of Studio 2 and the co-requisite curriculum for that level, a more thorough review of performance and advancement will be conducted to decide if the student is ready to advance further within the accredited degree program in architecture.

The degree modality of the B. Arch. degree is face-to-face for both tracks; however, a small number of classes may be offered partially or fully in a virtual format. This allows us to attract talented experts from outside the greater Philadelphia area and provides more flexibility for students out working in the profession or commuting to Drexel. By combining work and study, all Drexel Architecture students may be able to simultaneously satisfy their required internship for licensure—now called the Architectural Experience Program (AXP)— (https://www.ncarb.org/gain-axp-experience/)while completing their professional degree, thus qualifying for the registration exam on graduation in most jurisdictions.

The Integrated Path to Architectural Licensure (IPAL) Program

In August of 2015, Drexel was approved by the National Council of Architectural Registration Boards (NCARB) (http://www.ncarb.org/) for participation in the Integrated Path to Architectural Licensure (IPAL) (https://www.ncarb.org/become-architect/ipal/) Program. IPAL provides students the opportunity to achieve licensure upon graduation—an important innovation affording students the chance to jump-start their careers through a curriculum of education, work experience, and licensure examinations. Students follow either of the two options leading to the Bachelor of Architecture degree while preparing for and sitting for licensing exams during the summers following the third, fourth, and fifth year of study. Drexel is part of a selective group of schools in the country to offer this opportunity, an initiative spearheaded by the National Council of Architectural Registration Boards (NCARB), and one of the very few architecture programs offering the IPAL path to students enrolled in an undergraduate BArch degree program. Students seeking access to this track need permission from the program director and the IPAL faculty advisor.

Note: Bachelor of Architecture vs Bachelor of Science in Architectural Studies (p. 6) and Architecture vs Architectural Engineering (http://catalog.drexel.edu/undergraduate/collegeofengineering/architecturalengineering/)

Because Drexel University offers three programs with "architecture" in their titles, it is useful to point out the significant differences between them:

• Architects design buildings to meet people's spatial, organizational, and aesthetic needs; they also coordinate the building design process. All states, the District of Columbia, and three U.S. territories (Guam, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands) require individuals to be licensed (registered) before they may call themselves architects or be contracted to provide architectural services. Many architecture school graduates work in the field even though they are not licensed or while they are in the process of becoming licensed. But they may not call themselves an architect.

A licensed architect is required to take legal responsibility for all work. Licensure requirements usually include:

- A professional degree in architecture (B.Arch. or M.Arch. degrees)
- · A period of practical training or internship (AXP) (https://www.ncarb.org/gain-axp-experience/)
- Passage of all divisions of the Architect Registration Examination (ARE) (https://www.ncarb.org/pass-the-are/)

The difference between the NAAB-accredited Bachelor of Architecture (B.Arch.) degree and the non-accredited Bachelor of Science in Architectural Studies (p. 6) (BS in Arch. Studies) degree:

Bachelor of Architecture (B.Arch.) degrees are designed to help you develop a comprehensive knowledge of the discipline of architecture, as well as foundational professional knowledge and a basic understanding of related fields. The NAAB-accredited B.Arch. degree at Drexel University is suitable for students who seek to earn a professional undergraduate degree that leads to professional licensure and affords you early exposure to architectural practice. While our B.Arch. degree does NOT participate in Drexel's signature coop program, our students' opportunity to gain professional work experience and complete most or all of their AXP requirements prior to graduation, thus far exceeding the practice exposure of coop. A conventional B.Arch. degree is typically five years long. The 2+4 Option and the PT Evening Option take longer to complete due to the part-time model but allows an accelerated path to professional licensure due to parallel AXP completion and the option to participate in IPAL.

The Bachelor of Science in Architectural Studies (p. 6) (BS in Arch. Studies) degree is a four-year, pre-professional degree that is NOT accredited by NAAB. You will develop a comprehensive knowledge of the discipline of architecture, hone your design skills and expand your architectural understanding. If you're unsure about becoming a licensed architect, this degree will still encompass everything you enjoy about design and construction and gives you a broad introduction to architecture. Further, it provides flexible avenues to combine your studies with related fields. The BS in Arch. Studies degree is offered as a coop and a non-coop option. Our BS. in Architectural Studies degree can be a precursor to a dual BS/MS degree at Drexel University or a professional NAAB-accredited M.Arch. degree. (https://www.ncarb.org/pass-the-are/)

Architectural Engineers specialize in the design of engineering systems within buildings. Architectural engineers earn Bachelor of Science degrees and become professional engineers with the required experience and state examinations. Students whose interests are focused on the technological and engineering aspects of buildings should review Drexel's major in Architectural Engineering (http://catalog.drexel.edu/undergraduate/collegeofengineering/architecturalengineering/)offered by the College of Engineering.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Opportunities

Drexel's work/study program is an experiential-based learning model that complements and provides an alternative to traditional full-time academic architecture programs. The Drexel model provides a practical, high-quality education to those students who seek early exposure to daily architectural practice as well as an affordable alternative to students who could not otherwise be able to enter the profession. The degree modality for the B.Arch degree is face-to-face; however, a small number of classes may be offered partially or fully in a virtual format, which allows us to attract talented experts from outside the greater Philadelphia area and provides more flexibility for students on coop or out working in the profession.

Ordinarily, Drexel's architecture graduates continue working for the firms that employed them during the work-study phase of their studies. In time, some architects reach positions of associate or partner in these offices while others choose to launch their own firms. Urban design, historic preservation, interior design, and facilities management are some of the related careers that architectural graduates also pursue with similar patterns of success.

The Integrated Path to Architectural Licensure Initiative (IPAL) provides students the opportunity to achieve licensure upon graduation—an important innovation affording students the chance to jump-start their careers through a curriculum of education, work experience, and licensure examinations. Students follow either of Drexel's two options leading to the Bachelor of Architecture degree while preparing for and sitting for licensing exams during the summers following the third, fourth, and fifth year of study. Our Architecture Program is part of a selective group of schools in the country to offer this opportunity, an initiative spearheaded by the National Council of Architectural Registration Boards (NCARB).

Drexel is located in University City, a Philadelphia neighborhood that includes several centers of education and research. Philadelphia itself offers an unparalleled collection of landmark architecture and urban planning that spans 300 years of development. The region has always been home to architectural firms of national and international prominence. A rich and varied environment combined with an accomplished and supportive professional community make Philadelphia an ideal laboratory for the study of architecture. All of the faculty in the program are active in the Philadelphia architecture community, many in leadership positions at firms.

Students seeking support for resume and portfolio development may schedule an appointment with the Associate Director for Student Placement by contacting the Architecture program. Password-protected job listings exclusively for Drexel Architecture students can be found on the Opportunities for Students site (https://drexel.edu/westphal/academics/undergraduate/ARCH/Opportunities%20for%20Students/). (http://www.drexel.edu/westphal/academics/undergraduate/ARCH/Opportunities/) Firms seeking Drexel interns may contact students directly by finding student links to resumes, work samples, and web portfolios at this site.

Facilities

The Architecture program is housed in URBN Center, an original Venturi Scott Brown building enhanced by an award-winning retrofit by MS&R Design, which includes a skylight-covered atrium, exposed beams, and open spaces. There are dedicated 24-hour studios with dedicated desks for full-time students, storage space, model-building opportunities, and a small lounge area.

The Department's offices, studios, and teaching facilities are located on floors 3, 3A, 4 and 4A of the URBN Center at 3501 Market Street. The Hybrid Making Lab (http://drexel.edu/westphal/about/overview/making_spaces/HybridMakingLab/) with laser cutters, 3-D printers, a CNC router, and small-scale power tools located on the first floor, is open to all Westphal students. It is equipped with state-of-the-art fabricating equipment accessible to students after required training. The Westphal Print Center is a full-service, low-cost facility located on the ground floor and is accessible to students from on and off-campus.

The URBN Annex houses a black box theater, screening room, and the Leonard Pearlstein Gallery (http://www.drexel.edu/pearlsteingallery/). Additional studio and classroom space in the Academic Building and the Design Arts Annex accommodate photography, basic design, painting, sculpture, and a full woodworking shop, including metal, resin, casting, CNC, and fabrication equipment with industrial-quality equipment.

Philadelphia, one of the nation's major design centers and a UNESCO World Heritage Site, gives interior design students the vitality of the contemporary arts at local galleries and easy access to many museums, libraries, and renowned buildings, as well as design centers located in Philadelphia, New York City, and Washington, D.C.

Art History BS

Major: Art History

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 181.0 Co-op Options: One Co-op (Four years)

Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 50.0703 Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 25-4011

About the Program

The history of art explores the meanings, values, and purposes of the visual arts within the historical cultures that create them. Works of fine and applied arts are understood not merely as aesthetic forms, but as expressions of the social, economic, scientific, religious, and political contexts that gave rise to them. The study of art history thus effectively serves the high purposes of a liberal education by equipping students with an understanding of world cultures and their histories from multiple disciplinary perspectives, and by encouraging the development of critical thinking, reading, research, and writing skills.

The art history program has a uniquely flexible curricular design in that it permits students to pursue art history as either a Bachelor of Arts (p. 176) or a Bachelor of Science degree. The BA degree is intended for students wishing to become professional art historians or who wish to supplement the art history curriculum with other courses leading to a specific career path. The BS degree is designed to allow students to combine the art history major with another major or to tailor the curriculum to their specific interests and aspirations. Both the BA and BS degrees require a total of 181.0 credit hours.

Bachelor of Science

The BS degree also requires 60.0 credit hours of art history, but it only requires 36.0 credit hours of General Education courses, thereby freeing up 85.0 credit hours of coursework to accommodate another major or to design a personalized curriculum. The 85.0 credit hours of free electives provided by the BS degree permits the student to simultaneously pursue a second major, one or more minors, or simply explore the life of the mind by taking courses, with faculty advisement, in diverse fields. This program does not require a co-#op taken in addition to that which is required by the second major.

Co-op/Career Opportunities

Drexel's enviable geographical location in the northeast corridor of the United States provides a distinct advantage for an art history program because of the proximity of many important Museums, galleries, and auction houses. The Philadelphia Museum of Art, Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, Barnes Foundation, Rodin Museum, Institute of Contemporary Art, and the Penn Museum of Archeology and Anthropology are all local and easily accessible. Museums, galleries and auction houses in New York, Washington, Baltimore and other east coast centers are all within a reasonable distance by train, bus, or car. These institutions will offer students an abundance of opportunities for first-hand study of the major collections of art, architecture, and design. Proximity to these institutions can also provide for many choice opportunities for cooperative education experiences.

Some possibilities include:

- · Barnes Foundation
- · Philadelphia Museum of Art
- · Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts
- · American Philosophical Society
- · Moderne Gallery
- · Calderwood Gallery
- RagoArts Auction House, Lambertville, NJ
- Twelve Gates Gallery for Contemporary South Asian Art
- Newark Museum, NJ
- · Metropolitan Museum of Art
- · Brooklyn Museum
- · Mural Arts Program
- · Asia Society NY
- · Christie's NY

Career Opportunities

A major in art history can prepare students for a wide variety of careers, as well as preparation for graduate school.

Possible career paths:

- · Museum Administrator
- · Gallery Director
- Curator
- · Museum Registrar
- · Museum Educator
- Art Consultant
- · Art Librarian
- Editor
- · Art and/or Intellectual Property Law
- · Artist Representative
- · Non-profit and governmental organizations
- Teacher (K-12)
- Teacher/Researcher (college and university)

As a particularly broad humanities discipline, art history serves as an outstanding pre-professional degree, providing excellent preparation for a wide variety of professions, such as law, medicine, education and library science.

Visit the Drexel Steinbright Career Development Center (http://www.drexel.edu/scdc/) page for more detailed information on co-op and post-graduate opportunities.

Dance BS

Major: Dance

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 186.0 Co-op Options: One Co-op (Four years)

Classification of Instructional Program (CIP) code: 50.0399

Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 25-1121; 27-2031;

27-2032

About the Program

The dance program at Drexel University provides intensive exploration of dance in its physical, intellectual, creative and therapeutic aspects. The major is designed for students to focus on one of the following four tracks:

- · Dance/Movement Therapy
- · Dance in Education
- · Physical Therapy
- Performance

The dance major at Drexel University has a unique curriculum design and focus. This program combines rigorous academic coursework with extensive stage and studio dance experiences to prepare students for four possible career paths within dance: dance/movement therapy, dance in education, physical therapy and performance. Students participating in this major will earn a BS degree in dance with an optional minor in psychology.

Students focused on dance/movement therapy will prepare for jobs as dance/movement therapists. These are psychological counselors working in a variety of settings including hospitals, out-patient clinics and residential treatment centers. Students pursuing this option will earn a BS degree in dance at the Westphal College, through the Department of Performing Arts, for the first four years of study. They will then have the option to continue on to two years of study in the College of Nursing and Health Professions to earn an MA in Creative Arts in Therapy and become a licensed dance therapist.

The second career focus, dance in education, prepares students for jobs as elementary school teachers (grades Pre-K through 4) who may also serve as school dance specialists. Students choosing this option will earn a BS degree in dance through the Department of Performing Arts and may elect to continue for a fifth year of study to earn an MS in the Teaching, Learning & Curriculum through the School of Education. Students who successfully complete the five year BS/MS option in education will then be recommended to the State for a Pennsylvania Teaching Certificate in the area of Elementary Education for Pre-K to 4 certification, general education.

The third career focus, physical therapy, prepares students to work as physical therapists in a variety of settings, including hospitals, treatment centers, schools, and private practice. Students interested in the physical therapy option will complete the four-year BS degree in dance, along with a series of recommended electives in the physical sciences. After completion of the BS degree, students will continue their education for an additional three years in the College of Nursing and Health Professions to earn a DPT and become a licensed physical therapist.

The fourth option, custom design, allows students to work closely with faculty to create a personalized career in dance. Many students in this focus select performance, which prepares them to work as performers and/or choreographers in a variety of settings. Students interested in the performance option will complete the four-year BS degree in dance, with an emphasis on collaborative and interdisciplinary work.

The student who enters the dance major at Drexel University is an academically achieving student who has a deep curiosity for non-traditional careers in the field of dance. He or she is looking for extensive experiences to improve as a dancer, choreographer and performer while being stimulated academically. This student wants to study dance—both physically and cognitively—in college while being offered the possibility of gainful employment after graduation.

Co-op/Career Opportunities

The dance major is designed for students to focus on one of four career options. Several of the tracks lead to graduate study at Drexel or may be completed at the end of four years. Each also includes a co-op experience that allows for extended interaction with professionals in dance therapy, physical therapy, education, and performance. Students wishing to change career focus throughout the course of the undergraduate curriculum will have the option to do so.

Students focusing on dance/movement therapy participate in a six month co-op experience during the spring and summer terms of their junior year. These students may participate in co-op with a practicing dance/movement therapist, community dance artist, or mental health professional in a mental health, social service, rehabilitation, medical, special education or community arts setting.

Students focusing on physical therapy, will participate in a six month co-op in which they work in a setting with a physical therapist, such as a hospital, treatment center, school, or private practice. Co-op experiences where students are able to work with physical therapists working on dancers as clients will be encouraged.

Students focusing on dance in education participate in after school dance programs, artist in residence school partnerships and auditorium lecture demonstration programs as part of a touring dance company run by the dance program at Drexel, or other dance education focused activities in a school or studio setting, during the fall and winter of their junior year as their co-op experience.

Students focusing on custom design or performance may participate in a six month co-op including performance, administration, production, event planning and grant writing. Students interested in performance will work with professional choreographers to experience multiple aspects of creating a sustainable life in performance and/or choreography.

Visit the Drexel Steinbright Career Development Center (http://www.drexel.edu/scdc/) page for more detailed information on co-op and post-graduate opportunities.

Dance - Part-Time Professional Option BS

Major: Dance

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS)

Calendar Type: Quarter Minimum Required Credits: 186.0

Co-op Options: None

Classification of Instructional Program (CIP) code: 50.0399

Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 25-1121; 27-2031; 27-2032

About the Program

The Part-Time Professional Dance Program provides an opportunity for professional dancers to earn their BS degree in dance through a specially designed part-time program at Drexel University's Westphal College of Media Arts and Design. Participating students will fulfill the requirements of the current dance major curriculum over an extended period of time, with the exception of the studio dance technique and performance class requirements, which will be fulfilled through their professional dance company experiences.

This program can grant up to 50.0 credit hours of studio and performance-based courses to the participating students based on their professional experiences. The remaining 136.0 credit hours include 41.0 credit hours of the general education requirement, 55.0 credit hours of Dance Major requirement, and 40.0 credit hours of free electives that are fully online.

Students who enter the program will need a high school diploma or GED equivalency. The students are expected to enroll in 2-3 courses each term with the expectations of finishing the program in four to five years.

Additional Information

For more information about this major, visit the Westphal College's Dance (http://www.drexel.edu/westphal/academics/undergraduate/DANC/) webpage.

Admission Requirements

The Dance Program is offering the online option of the Part-Time Professional BS in Dance, and SAT or ACT testing, normally required for applicants to Drexel University, may be an inaccurate predictor of academic readiness for full time professional dancers who have completed high school several years prior, or taken a GED equivalency exam. In lieu of this testing, this qualifying certificate program is a third option for assessing eligibility for the program.

Students entering the part-time dance major through the certificate program will need to complete the certificate with a GPA of 3.0 for eligibility to enter the dance major.

* For the online part time professional dance program, three courses will not be offered online due to the nature of the course content that require physical cueing and adjustments that cannot be translated to online delivery. These three courses are:

- DANC 117: Foundations of Somatic Theory and Practice
- DANC 221: Survey of Dance/Movement Therapy
- DANC 335: Dance Composition II

To make sure the students can complete this part time program without staying on campus for a long period of time, the dance program is going to develop these courses in the short-term residency style. Each residency will be two weeks and will meet 3 hours/per day from Monday to Friday.

** Up to 50 Credit hours will be granted based on professional experience.

Participating students fulfill the requirements of the full time dance major curriculum, with the exception of co-operative education, and the studio dance technique and performance class requirements, which will be fulfilled through their professional dance company technique classes and performance opportunities. Credit for these studio requirements will be granted as "professional life experience," providing the student is a professional dancer working with a recognized professional dance company. Specific credits granted, up to 50 credits, will be determined by an individual review of each applicant's application.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/faculty-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

* Participating students fulfill the requirements of the full time dance major curriculum, with the exception of co-operative education, and the studio dance technique and performance class requirements, which will be fulfilled through their professional dance company technique classes and performance opportunities. Credit for these studio requirements will be granted as "professional life experience," providing the student is a professional dancer working with a recognized professional dance company. Specific credits granted, up to 50 credits, will be determined by an individual review of each applicant's application.

Design & Merchandising BS

I (p. 119)Major: Design and Merchandising Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 181.0 Co-op Options: One Co-op (Four years)

Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 50.0499 Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 13-1022

About the Program

Drexel's innovative Design & Merchandising (D&M) major integrates visual design, merchandising, and business insight for the fashion lifestyle industries. The Bachelor of Science degree educates students to conceptualize, plan, develop, market, and measure the opportunity for products and services for consumers through physical stores, online channels, televised content, and interactive media. Students develop thorough knowledge of how products come to life through sustainable textiles, design, and production, and strategize the optimal assortment, inventory, and pricing for business goals. The multidisciplinary curriculum, based on both theory and practice, is delivered through immersive, experiential learning. Graduates work across the fashion lifestyle industries engaged in creative strategies, dynamic merchandise assortments, and new product lines for global consumer markets.

The D&M program is ranked in the top four of fashion merchandising colleges in the United States by fashion-schools.org (https://www.fashion-schools.org/articles/top-50-fashion-merchandising-schools-and-colleges-us-2022-rankings/) and in the top fifteen of fashion and business management programs in the world by Business of Fashion (https://www.businessoffashion.com/education/best-schools/undergraduate/fashion-business/) and highlighted as best overall, best in global influence and best in learning experience. Drexel is one of the nation's top universities located in Philadelphia, the sixth largest city, with easy access to the city's rich cultural life, vibrant design scene, and pivotal retail and entrepreneurial marketplace. From buying and fashion marketing to sustainability and product development, companies in Philly, New York City, Boston, California and other cities offer students a variety of career paths in wholesale, retail, textiles, sourcing, media, marketing, visual merchandising, and public relations.

Program: Discover a Dynamic Future in the Fashion Lifestyle Industries

Students will participate in Drexel's renown cooperative education (co-op) program (https://drexel.edu/scdc/co-op/undergraduate/), spending six months away from the classroom gaining in-demand career skills, bringing products and services to consumers, and receiving exposure to valuable industry networks. Co-op employers include Urban Outfitters, TJX, Nicole Miller, Marchesa, Fashion Snoops, and others.

Students take fashion business courses that promote real-world project-based learning. Students work in functional teams exploring business challenges and mapping out opportunities. Industry professionals and fashion merchandising entrepreneurs mentor students and critique business strategies.

Students expand their global intelligence through robust study abroad options from the Office of Global Engagement (https://drexel.edu/studyabroad/), including the highly popular London College of Fashion, Accademia Italiana in Florence, and Ecole Superiere de Commerce Exterieur (ESCE) in Paris.

Students will tailor their interests and passions via career pathway electives allowing targeted study in ecommerce, fashion marketing, communications, magazine and media publication, product development, entrepreneurship, and others. Students also produce the award-winning D&M Magazine (https://nam10.safelinks.protection.outlook.com/?url=https%3A%2F%2Fissuu.com%2Fdesignandmerchandising%2Fdocs%2F2020_d_m_magazine_web&data=04%7C01%7Ccdb93%40drexel.edu%7C55d6250dd2bf419ab67908d921eab3b9%7C3664e6fa47bd45a696708c4f080f8ca6%7C0%7C0%7C637578114177416983%7CUnknown%7CTWFpbGZsb3d8eyJWljoiMC4wLjAwMDAiLCJQljoiV2luMzliLCJBTil6lk1haWwiLCJXVCl6Mn0%3D%7C1000&sdata=PexotEWxz6sGBQp16HZa6Xlxa4k5OrEYgRwQrceUV6k%3D&reserved=0).

Students will learn in a fashion merchandising program that has sustainability integrated throughout the curriculum along with courses that evaluate the intersection of society, culture, and fashion.

Dual/Accelerated Degree Programs

Expand your career prospects in the dynamic world of fashion and unlock additional opportunities through our flexible dual-degree programs, allowing you to earn a Master of Science (MS) in Retail & Merchandising (p. 124) or a Master of Business Administration (MBA) (p. 119), empowering you with a well-rounded skill set for success in the fashion industry.

Additional Information

For more information about this major, visit the College's Design & Merchandising (http://www.drexel.edu/westphal/academics/undergraduate/DSMR/) page.

Degree Requirements

Students pursuing the Bachelor of Science in Design & Merchandising have 31.0 Career Pathway electives of their choosing. These electives enable students to pursue specific areas of study in Merchandising, Buying, e-commerce & Retail Operations, Marketing, Media, Marketing and Public Promotion; Product Development and Sourcing, Fashion Sustainability, Fashion Technology, Beauty Merchandising and Marketing, Fashion Entrepreneurship and Graduate School Preparation (see our dual degree options) (p. 34). In addition, electives can be used for focused study in Media Merchandising (D&M Magazine), Fashion Show Production, optional Study Abroad courses, and/or pursuit of a minor.

- † Career Pathway electives enable students to pursue specific areas of study which compliment the Design & Merchandising major and the student's desired career pathway.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/faculty-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Co-op/Career Opportunities

The Drexel Co-op experience is a renowned collegiate program and the essence of the Drexel Difference in the Westphal College of Media Arts & Design. Design & Merchandising students spend a minimum of six months (two terms) working in positions during which they apply classroom and studio skills to an actual work experience within their chosen professions. Design & Merchandising students leave for co-op academically equipped to be part of a company, and return as young business professionals having integrated classroom knowledge into the workplace and improved their resume.

Students who complete the Bachelor of Science in D&M from Drexel are prepared for success in a wide range of Career Pathways.

Digital Media and Virtual Production BS

Major: Digital Media and Virtual Production Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 187.0

Co-op Options: One Co-op (Four years); Three Co-op (Five years) Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 09.0702 Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 11-9199

About the Program

The Digital Media & Virtual Production program encompasses a unique combination of skills and principles used by industry for the development and execution of a Virtual Reality (VR), Augmented Reality (AR), other forms of Immersive Media including Virtual Production. Among these are creative thinking, understanding of design, aesthetic sensitivity, and storytelling balanced with technical knowledge in areas such as 3D Computer Graphics, Animation, Visual Effects, real-time 3D graphics, interactivity, digital camera and image processing technologies. Additionally, critical thinking, the ability to collaborate effectively and communication skills are also integral to success in this rapidly expanding industry.

Drexel's Bachelor of Science in Digital Media & Virtual Production program encompasses foundation courses in the applied and social sciences, the humanities, and a wide range of professional digital media coursework to prepare students for careers in Virtual Production, VR/AR and related Immersive Media fields. At the heart of the curriculum are the design and production labs and workshops where students are challenged to apply their knowledge acquired from the above disciplines to consequential design problems.

Courses required by this major are predominantly conducted in-person, on campus. However, given the virtual focus of the major itself, a select number of courses are conducted via virtual modalities to engage a diverse population of instructors and students from beyond campus boundaries, as well as exercise the practice and application of virtual technologies and disciplines.

Additional Information

For more information about this major, visit the Westphal College's Digital Media & Virtual Production (https://drexel.edu/westphal/academics/undergraduate/virtual-reality/) web page.

Admission Requirements

In addition to standard application requirements, VRIM requires program director review of an additional, major specific essay question and applicant portfolio.

- † DIGM 490 and DIGM 491 are repeated 3 times each to complete the DIGM Capstone Senior Project sequence.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/faculty-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Entertainment & Arts Management BS

Major: Entertainment & Arts Management Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 183.0 Co-op Options: One Co-op (Four years)

Classification of Instructional Program (CIP) code: 50.1001 Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 13-1011

About the Program

The Entertainment & Arts Management (EAM) program at Drexel University is a nationally ranked, international leader in teaching the business of show business. Our unique program is a business degree, yet one that is based in the entertainment and arts sectors. Students in the Entertainment and Arts Management major choose an area of concentration from media, performing arts, or visual arts management disciplines. The curriculum is designed to prepare students to lead and manage in both commercial and non-profit areas of the field. Coursework in the EAM program includes general education, core requirements and features a built-in business minor. Students also enjoy a wide-selection of specialized coursework within their chosen area of concentration.

Unlike other undergraduate programs in this field, students are not required to choose commercial or nonprofit. Our philosophy is to prepare students for leadership careers in the vast world or arts and entertainment. This gives EAM students increased flexibility when choosing their career paths, and a distinct professional advantage in today's ever-changing arts and entertainment industries.

Our Goal

Our overall goal in the EAM program is to prepare students for leadership careers in the entertainment and arts fields by giving them:

- a broad understand of the business of entertainment & the arts, from for-profit commercial entertainment companies to non-profit arts & culture organizations;
- · real world work experience;
- · creative skills development in the discipline that interests them, and · expert advice and insight from practicing professionals.

BS/MS Option

Students who complete the Entertainment & Arts Management program may also choose to pursue a graduate degree in Drexel University's Westphal College in television management or arts administration and museum leadership. Students who graduate with a 3.5 GPA in the last two years of the program who apply to the MS in Arts Administration and Museum Leadership (http://catalog.drexel.edu/graduate/collegeofmediaartsanddesign/artsadministrationandmuseumleadership/) are automatically accepted into the MS program. Other graduate degrees within the college are available to students as well.

Dual Degree BS/MBA Option

Students majoring in Entertainment and Arts Management (4-year with co-op) may choose the BS Entertainment and Arts Management/MBA (p. 135) dual degree option. This highly attractive program option combines study in the management of the arts and entertainment industries along with the MBA degree. The program is designed to allow students to complete both the bachelor's degree and the MBA in five years.

Applying to the Dual Degree BS/MBA Option

Freshman applicants to the Entertainment & Arts Management program with a combined Math and Critical Reading SAT score of 1300 and a 3.5 GPA may apply for the BS/MBA program at the time of their initial application to Drexel University. Current students may choose to apply to the dual degree option once they have achieved between 90.0 and 120.0 credits. All students who are accepted into the accelerated program must maintain a 3.2 GPA as an EAM undergraduate, and must submit two letters of recommendation and meet minimum GMAT requirements at the time of the application to the MBA program.

Additional Information

For more information about this major, visit the College's Entertainment & Arts Management (http://www.drexel.edu/westphal/academics/undergraduate/eam/) page.

Degree Requirements

Coursework in the EAM program includes general education and core requirements as well as specialized coursework within the student's chosen area of concentration and, if applicable, within a specific arts or media discipline. For instance, within the media management concentration, students choose coursework in one of two disciplines: film, video, and screenwriting or digital media. In the performing arts management concentration, students choose coursework in a dance, performing arts, or theatre discipline.

The core requirements provide an overview of the student's future career field and its required key skills and abilities. The core requirements build a foundation for further advanced and specialized courses, taught in the student's area of concentration. At the end of their freshman year, students select one of the following concentrations:

- (A) Visual Arts Management Concentration
- (B) Performing Arts Management
  - a. Dance Concentration
  - b. Performing Arts Concentration
  - c. Theatre Concentration
- (C) Media Arts Management
  - a. Digital Media Concentration
  - b. Cinema and Television Concentration

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/faculty-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Sample Plans of Study

Fashion Design BS

Major: Fashion Design

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 183.0

Co-op Options: One Co-op (Four years)

Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 50.0407 Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 27-1022

About the Program

The Fashion Design program at Drexel University's Antoinette Westphal College of Media Arts & Design (https://drexel.edu/westphal/academics/undergraduate/FASH/) educates and trains visionary designers to use an integrated approach toward the creation of contemporary fashion within the context of an expanding, yet converging, global economy and society. Through a series of courses offered freshman year, students will explore the challenges facing our industry and learn how to implement inclusive, responsible, and sustainable solutions in their design process. The fusion of art, design, science, and technology serves as a springboard for the production of unique apparel for the 21st century, and represents a transdisciplinary approach that requires flexibility and focus.

Over the past two decades, Drexel's Fashion Design program has developed a stellar, international reputation and is ranked in the top four nationally and 14th worldwide. That is due, in part, to a passionate and experienced faculty, novel approaches to pedagogy, and participation in national and international competitions. Faculty and alumni connections to industry leaders strongly augment and catalyze the program, the strength of which is closely linked to the philosophy that each student has a distinct vision and a unique aesthetic that must be cultivated on an individual basis.

Students have 24-hour access to state-of-the-art studios including CLO-3D virtual garment simulation, CLO-3D pattern making, Shima Seiki Apex design technology, and automated knitwear machines. The Shima Seiki Fashion Knitting Lab (https://drexel.edu/westphal/academics/graduate/FASH/research/shima-seiki/), located on third floor of the URBN Center, features the latest equipment for the design, simulation, and production of fully fashioned knitwear. Students can engage in collaborative University-wide research through the use of the Drexel University Center for Functional Fabrics (https://drexel.edu/functional-fabrics/) and the Hybrid Making Lab (https://drexel.edu/westphal/about/overview/making_spaces/HybridMakingLab/) located on the URBN Center's first floor. They acquire detailed knowledge about industrial productions, advanced technologies in design, collaborative design, materials and processes, and the marketing and merchandising of clothing in this maker focused program.

Accordingly, our future fashion designers, both undergraduates and graduates alike, develop an intuitive and practical understanding of design through a fine arts foundation, while studying the psychological, social, and historical contexts of fashion through the world-renowned Robert and Penny Fox Historic Costume Collection (http://www.drexel.edu/foxcollection/) (FHCC). Importantly, the students are provided with commercial studio/atelier training that goes hand in hand with classroom instruction through the University's cooperative education program (https://drexel.edu/westphal/academics/co-op/). Cooperative education offers invaluable opportunities for students to observe and participate in the fashion industry at the ground level. Critiques by visiting professionals are included in all upper level courses and provide valuable "real world" input as well as future career connections. A large percentage of students spend a term studying abroad (http://www.drexel.edu/studyabroad/) in the world's great fashion capitals, including London (https://studyabroad.drexel.edu/?FuseAction=Programs.ViewProgram&Program_ID=10070&Type=O&sType=O), England and Florence (https://studyabroad.drexel.edu/?FuseAction=Programs.ViewProgram_ID=40220), Italy. Students can also choose from a range of intensive courses abroad (ICA) such as Drexel's Fashion Break in South Korea: Korean Fashion Industry (https://studyabroad.drexel.edu/?FuseAction=Programs.ViewProgr

Co-op/Career Opportunities

Drexel Co-op is a renowned collegiate program. Students spend a minimum of six months either in the US (http://www.drexel.edu/westphal/academics/co-op/) or abroad (http://www.drexel.edu/scdc/co-op/international/) where they can apply their skills in the challenging and exciting fashion industry. Areas of opportunity include garment design, concept design, product development, production, textile design, costume design, technical design, CAD, publishing, curatorial work, promotion, and marketing. During the cooperative education, program students apply their industry knowledge and gain experience in the diverse, fast paced global world of fashion. Students forge long lasting relationships with alumni and other industry professionals.

Facilities

Drexel University's Antoinette Westphal College of Media Arts & Design is located in the new URBN Center at 3501 Market Street in Philadelphia. The URBN Center is a 140,000-square-foot, state-of-the art facility where the Fashion Design studios are located on the third floor.

Classes are held in fully equipped studios for design and construction, pattern drafting, CAD design, 3-D garment simulation, and textile design including a dedicated senior and graduate design studio. Other studios on the third floor include a specialty equipment lab, computer lab, knitwear studio, a fabric dying and research lab, fashion drawing studio, and the Charles Evans Library. In our state-of-the art knitwear lab, students have access to Shima Seiki's computerized flat knitting machine and APEX Design Systems.

The R (http://www.drexel.edu/westphal/resources/FHCC/)obert and Penny Fox Historic Costume Collection (http://www.drexel.edu/foxcollection/) (FHCC), currently estimated to hold more than 12,000 objects, is located on the first floor and is an invaluable library, archive, gallery, and educational tool for our students as well as scholars, historians, artists, and designers in the national and international community. Also located on the first floor is the Hybrid Making Lab (http://www.drexel.edu/westphal/about/overview/making_spaces/HybridMakingLab/). This lab provides collaborative design and research opportunities both within Westphal College and University wide. The Shima Seiki Fashion Knitting Lab (https://drexel.edu/westphal/academics/graduate/FASH/research/shima-seiki/) is located on the third floor of the URBN Center. The Shima Seiki Haute Technology Lab, located at 3401 Market Street, welcomes students and faculty from across the University as well as the community.

The open environment of the URBN Center provides opportunity for collaboration with all of the programs at the Westphal College. Design & Merchandising is on the first floor, opposite the main lobby where work from all of the College's students is regularly displayed. Digital Media, Animation & Visual Effects, Game Art & Production, Web Development & Interaction Design, Product Design, Graphic Design, Interiors, and Architecture's studios and labs are also located in the URBN Center. The Center encourages anyone interested to schedule a visit to experience the creativity, technology, innovation, and resulting excitement.

Film & Television BS

Major: Film and Television

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits:186.0 Co-op Options: One Co-op (Four years)

Classification of Instructional Program (CIP) code: 50.0602

Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 27-2012; 27-4031; 27-4032

About the Program

The Film & Television major offers a balance of technical craft and artistic vision that prepares students to pursue professional careers in the Film and Television industries. The program is hands-on with core themes driving each year: Story, Voice, Professional Practice, and Implementation. There is also substantial coursework in screenwriting and film studies.

This highly competitive program, with only sixty-four freshmen accepted annually, features smaller classes that foster student-faculty interaction and mentoring, as well as ample access to excellent equipment. The unique Drexel co-op and Los Angeles Summer Program enhance education by providing students with professional employment experience.

Virtual courses and virtual components to courses play a small but important role in the curriculum for Film and Television. They allow us to attract talented faculty and speakers from across the country and expose students to real-world experiences of film production and the exposure to world class situations that would be impossible in a face-to-face setting.

The Film & Television program also offers a minor in Film Studies (p. 183).

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/faculty-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Game Design & Production BS

Major: Game Design and Production

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 191.0

Co-op Options: Three Co-op (Five years); One Co-op (Four years) Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 11.0899 Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 27-1014; 25-1199

About the Program

Drexel's Game Design & Production undergraduate major, nationally ranked as a top program by multiple organizations including the Princeton Review (#10 in 2023), provides students with a strong, broad-based foundation in digital design and content creation skills in a team project environment. In Drexel's generalist-to-specialist approach, students try on a wide variety of roles in game development—from idea to reality in art and code—discovering the skill areas that they want to pursue, focusing their minors, elective courses, and team experiences as they progress through the program.

Drexel's Game Design & Production program is committed to making the game development environment, and by extension the industry at large, a supportive and welcoming community for all voices. The democratization of game making tools enables anyone to tell their story in the immersive format of games. We in the program are excited to help the next generation of storytellers create new games that reflect the full spectrum of the human experience.

The major supports careers in any industry that wants to speak the language of real-time interactive games. Beyond the obvious entertainment sector of PC, mixed-reality, mobile, or console games, graduates from the program are able to move into any industry in any geographic area in support of simulation, training, marketing, communications, and education.

The focus on project-based teamwork prepares students for cross-disciplinary work in any scale company. This includes large-budget AAA blockbuster game development with teams of hundreds in complex leadership hierarchies and focused, skilled technicians and artists, as well as small- and medium-size companies that require employees to wear multiple hats throughout development or independent studios that challenge individuals to juggle multiple responsibilities. Drexel Dragons can be specialists with a strong foundation that allows them to adapt, to be flexible bridge-builders and liaisons across art and technical teams, and rugged entrepreneurs wearing all the hats.

All industries evolve, and digital content creation of any type is particularly dynamic. Processes and job titles that exist today are likely to be automated in five years, with the recent developments in imitative Al being the latest example. Companies small to large will use established and newly developed commercially available tools, but also build and maintain proprietary in-house tools and pipelines.

Courses in Drexel's program evolve in response to industry trends and on-demand special topic courses are utilized to rapidly respond to student and industry developments. Gaining familiarity with rapidly changing industry-standard tools is important but it's equally important to be prepared to transfer skills in one tool into a different tool of the same type – to be able to move from a 3D modeling tool like Blender, to 3DS Max, to Maya, or to a proprietary in-house tool you can't touch until you're hired by that specific company. Drexel's program encourages students to become comfortable as tool-agnostic creators

While courses are predominantly offered face-to-face on campus, we also offer a variety of virtual courses taught by a diverse range of professionals from across the nation, exposing students to a wider network of industry professionals and to the evolving climate of industry work as a significant number of studios have permanently moved to be partially or completely remote, even prior to 2020.

Students begin making game assets and games in their first terms as freshmen and continue making team-based game projects both small and large throughout their plan of study. Interdisciplinary teamwork is a core skill developed in teams of two to over eighteen, often spanning multiple programs including Computer Science, Music Industry, Animation, Virtual Production, and more. Every project enables students to experiment and refine their experience in the many roles required to produce a finished game. Drexel University offers multiple opportunities to support the entrepreneurial minded student, from Drexel's on-campus indie incubator, the Entrepreneurial Game Studio (https://drexel.edu/excite/innovation/egs/), to the Close School of Entrepreneurship (http://drexel.edu/close/) and the Baiada Institute for Entrepreneurship (http://drexel.edu/baiada/).

Career building begins inside the classroom with team projects and networking, and outside the classroom with six or eighteen months of co-op experiences. (p. 72)

To complement the creative focus of the Game Design & Production major, a minor in Computer Science is popular, and in many cases an ideal supplement for Game Design & Production students. The CS minor increases programming knowledge while maintaining a creative design and production focus in the Game Design & Production major. This or any of the over 120 minors available at Drexel would be easy to achieve within a plan of study using free electives. It's important students make their minor a personal choice to reflect their specific focus and further personalize their Drexel game development experience.

- ** Select from 100-499 level courses, including T380-T480 in AFAS, ARCH, ARTH, COM, DANC, ENGL, FMST, GST, HIST, INTR, IST, JWST, LANG, LING, MENA, MUSC, PHIL, PHTO, PPE, PBHL, RELS, SCRP, THTR, TVST, VSCM, WGST, WRIT.
- *** Select from 100-499 level courses, including T380-T480, in AFAS, ANTH, CJS, CS, ECON, ENSS, ENVS, PSCI, PSY, PBHL, SOC, WGST.
- † DIGM 490 and DIGM 491 are repeated three times each to complete the DIGM Capstone Senior Project sequence.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/faculty-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Co-op/Career Opportunities

Drexel students have broad training in all areas of game design and production, and our students have career opportunities in both entertainment gaming and broader simulation/training industries, and anywhere interactive gaming technology is applied - a growing segment in all industries.

Co-op Experiences

Building a career often begins with a few key contacts - especially through alums already working professionally - and the co-op program gives Drexel students the chance to meet professionals, make their skills known, and build their personal network.

In addition to small and large entertainment companies, students have opportunities to explore how game design is applicable to many local and international industries ranging from aerospace to pharmaceuticals to home and yacht design.

Recent co-op opportunities include game and digital media jobs in Philadelphia region companies like Art Sphere, Big Moxi Games, Comcast, DVNC Tech, eNable Games, Entrepreneurial Game Studio, GLIDE Lab, Gossamer Games, iD Tech Game Design & Development Academy, IDEA, Night Kitchen Interactive, Penn Medicine, PHL Collective, QuadraTron Games, Skyless Game Studios, Tipping Point Media, and Virtual Health.

Students also secured game and digital media co-ops at national and international companies, like Activision in Los Angeles, Amazon Robotics remotely, EA Games remotely, Infinity Ward remotely Rockstar Games in San Diego, Treyarch remotely, Twisted Ark in Helsinki, and Inter Media Japan in Tokyo.

Career Experiences

Our network of successful game development alum work in leading entertainment companies including 343 Industries, Activision, Avalanche, Blizzard, Disney, EA Games, Epic Games, Filament Games, Firaxis Games, Gearbox Software, Ghost Story Games, Industrial Light & Magic, Infinity Ward, Insomniac, Irrational Games, Level Ex, Magic Fuel Games, Microsoft Studios, Microsoft Xbox, Midway, Mojang, NCsoft, NeatherRealm Studios, Nexon, Oculus VR, Raven Software, Riot Games, Rockstar Games, Rovio, Running With Scissors, Schell Games, Sony SCEA, Spry Fox, The Coalition, Turn 10 Studios, Volition, ZeniMax Online, and Zynga.

Other students chose small-to-mid-size studios or launch their own digital media enterprises, like Tom Fulp (BS '02), founder of Newgrounds.com, or indie game companies, like Dan Fornace (BS '11), creator of Rivals of Aether, Greg Lobanov (BS '14), creator of Wandersong & Chicory, or Tom Sharpe (BS '16), director of Gossamer Games and their award-winning title, Sole. Students also chose to work outside of entertainment by applying their game production skills to training, simulation, marketing, or education endeavors with companies including Amazon Robotics, BRDG Studios, Comcast Labs, Fred Rogers Productions, Lockheed Martin, Tipping Point Media, and Vanguard.

Jobs titles include Art Director, Art Producer, Animator, Associate Producer, Character Animator, Cinematic Lead, Cinematics Animator, Community Manager, Digital Project Coordinator, Director of Virtual Production, Facial Capture Artist, Game Designer, Lead Cinematic Animator, Lead Technical Director, Lead Virtual Production Manager, Localization Producer, Marketing Manager, Motion Capture Technician, Previsualization Supervisor, Production Coordinator, Program Manager, Programmer, Senior Animator, Senior Artist, Senior Community Manager, Simulation Developer, Technical Artist, and Virtual Production Engineer and Manager.

Visit the Drexel Steinbright Career Development Center (http://www.drexel.edu/scdc/) page for more detailed information on co-op and post-graduate opportunities.

Dual Accelerated Degrees

BS/MS in Digital Media

The accelerated degree programs enable academically qualified students to earn both a bachelor's and a master's degree in five years instead of six — graduating sooner than they would in traditional programs. In addition, the graduate-level courses students take in their junior and senior years are included in their undergraduate tuition, which saves almost a year's worth of their MS tuition.

Current Drexel students in the 4-year/1-Co-Op and 5-year/3-Co-Op programs may apply for an accelerated degree programs after completing 70.0 credits, but no more than 120.0 credits. Many of our accelerated students have gone on to careers at leading companies including Disney, Dreamworks, Industrial Light & Magic, Microsoft Studios, NCSoft, Netflix, and Pixar.

Game Design and Production Faculty

Paul Diefenbach, PhD (University of Pennsylvani). Associate Professor. Game development, real-time rendering

Frank J. Lee, PhD (Carnegie Mellon University). Professor. Human-computer interaction; cognitive engineering and science, intelligent software agents for games and education.

Robert Lloyd, MFA (Temple University) Program Director, Game Design & Production. Associate Teaching Professor. Game development, themed entertainment and motion simulation

Emil Polyak, MDCArtDes (University of New South Wales). Assistant Professor. Cross-disciplinary art and design

Daniel Rose, BS (Purdue University). Assistant Teaching Professor. AAA and freelance game developer and environmental artist

Tony A. Rowe, BS (Drexel University) Associate Program Director. Assistant Teaching Professor. AAA game designer, writer and historian.

Michael Wagner, PhD (Vienna University of Technology) Program Director, Digital Media. Associate Professor. Educational use of digital media and computer games.

Emeritus Faculty

Theo Artz, BFA (Tyler School of Art, Temple University). Associate Professor. Digital media.

Graphic Design BS

Major: Graphic Design

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 189.0 Co-op Options: One Co-op (Four years)

Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 50.0409 Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 27-1024

About the Program

Westphal College's Graphic Design curriculum provides a balance of theory and practice in rigorous design study enhanced by general education coursework in the humanities and the physical and social sciences. Students learn to conceptualize, visualize and realize visual communications through the rigor of project-based exploration and experimentation based on the formal foundations of typography, image-making, aesthetics and critical thinking. Graphic Design students are immersed in all aspects of visual communications such as motion, web and interactive design, books, magazines and publications (print and screen based), posters, advertising, packaging, exhibition design and data visualization. Working on two- and three-dimensional projects and electronic media, students utilize the latest applications and emerging technologies to stay current with the industry.

Graphic Design students can also pursue advanced elective coursework in web and motion graphic design, environmental graphic design, experimental publication design and other interdisciplinary special topics projects.

Additional Information

For more information about the major, visit the Graphic Design (https://drexel.edu/westphal/academics/undergraduate/vscm/) program webpage or contact Program Director Bill Rees (wbr24@drexel.edu).

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Co-op/Career Opportunities

Potential employers include advertising agencies, publishers, printers, independent and in-house design studios, museums and galleries, magazines and newspapers, and television. Training in visual communication prepares an individual for careers in many fields because the problem-solving methods and organizational skills it builds are widely applicable.

Facilities

The Graphic Design studios are located on the fourth floor of the URBN Center in the Antoinette Westphal College of Media Arts and Design. There are five dedicated studios equipped with up-to-date electronic and traditional tools. Studios have work surfaces for traditional practices that will accommodate fifteen students and wall surfaces for critiques or posting examples of printed work. In addition, students have access to a dedicated, non-scheduled graphic design "open lab" equipped with all necessary technology and work surfaces.

Graphic Design Faculty

Joshua Gdovin, BS (Drexel University). Associate Teaching Professor. Graphic design; web graphics; motion graphics, and capstone.

Jody Graff, BS (Drexel University). Associate Professor. Graphic design; publication design, annual report design, three-dimensional graphics and packaging, environmental graphic design (exhibition and wayfinding), and capstone.

Eric Karnes, MFA (Virginia Commonwealth University). Assistant Professor. Graphic design; logo design, corporate identity, typography, advanced typography, publication design, book design, professional portfolio, capstone.

William Rees, BS (Drexel University) Program Director, Graphic Design. Teaching Professor. Graphic design; logo design, corporate identity, publication design, electronic imaging, print production, professional portfolio, and thesis.

Mark Willie, MFA (Boston Museum School of Fine Arts) Associate Program Director. Teaching Professor. Graphic design; typography, logo design, corporate identity, publication design, book design, professional portfolio, and capstone.

Shushi Yoshinaga, BFA (Philadelphia College of the Arts). Associate Professor. Graphic design; letterform, typography, and capstone.

Emeritus Faculty

Sandy Stewart, BFA (Tyler School of Art, Temple University). Associate Professor Emeritus. Graphic design, logo design, corporate identity, publication design, three-dimensional graphics and packaging, and capstone.

Interior Design BS

Major: Interior Design

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 187.0 Co-op Options: One Co-op (Four years)

Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 50.0408 Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 27-1025

About the Program

The undergraduate Interior Design program explores the behavioral, technological, environmental, and aesthetic aspects of interior design within the context of increasingly more complex design projects. Combined with art and art history, and general education requirements, a core of interior design courses creates a unique education at the forefront of design. Through academics grounded in problem-solving design studios, cooperative employment, and a dedicated faculty, the Interior Design program prepares students for leadership positions in the industry. The Interior Design program is consistently ranked among the top programs in the country and in the survey by DesignIntelligence of "America's Best Design Schools."

The BS in Interior Design program is CIDA (Council for Interior Design Accreditation) and NASAD (National Association of Schools of Art & Design) accredited.

Program Philosophy and Mission

The mission of the Interior Design program is to prepare students to enter the field of interior design as skilled designers, creative thinkers, professional leaders, and responsible citizens. We cultivate students who acknowledge their responsibilities to the safety and well-being of the public and the stewardship of the environment to lead a multifaceted profession in an ever-changing world. The curriculum combines a studio-based design sequence with broad liberal arts study and experiential learning. Paired with a well-established professional co-op, the coursework is structured to build upon the fundamentals of interior design and to anticipate and reflect change in a continually evolving industry. The program encourages exploration and experimentation that fosters lifelong learners who will contribute to the profession and the discipline's body of knowledge.

Co-op/Career Opportunities

Interior design is a multi-faceted field and includes careers with interior design firms, architectural firms, and facilities management organizations; in governmental agencies; and in the furniture and textile industries. Full-time paid employment in the profession is an integral component of the program at Drexel. The six-month co-operative education, undertaken in the junior year, provides project-based experience as well as the daily operation of a design firm. Students may opt to do their co-op in Philadelphia or in another location of their choosing. Through a required course and career advisement services offered by the Steinbright Career Development Center, students develop the ability to market themselves and obtain jobs in leading firms worldwide.

Facilities

The Interior Design and Interior Architecture & Design programs are housed in URBN Center, an original Venturi Scott Brown building enhanced by an award-winning retrofit by MS&R Design, which includes a skylight-covered atrium, exposed beams, and open spaces. There are dedicated 24-hour undergraduate and graduate student studios with storage space, computers, and a small lounge area. We have a materials library that is continually updated with samples from major manufacturers and local design offices and showrooms; two computer labs and in-house printing for the use of our students; a Hybrid Making Lab (http://drexel.edu/westphal/about/overview/making_spaces/HybridMakingLab/) with laser cutters, 3-D printers, a CNC router, and small-scale power tools for student use; additionally, a large shop facility which offers wood, metal, casting, CNC, and fabrication equipment.

The URBN Annex houses a black box theater, screening room, and the Leonard Pearlstein Gallery (http://www.drexel.edu/pearlsteingallery/). Additional studio and classroom space in the Academic Building and the Design Arts Annex accommodate photography, basic design, painting, sculpture, and a full woodworking shop, including metal, resin, casting, CNC, and fabrication equipment with industrial-quality equipment.

Philadelphia, one of the nation's major design centers and a UNESCO World Heritage Site, gives interior design students the vitality of the contemporary arts at local galleries and easy access to many museums, libraries, and renowned buildings, as well as design centers located in Philadelphia, New York City, and Washington, D.C.

About the Program

The Drexel University Photography Program is one of the most elite of its kind in the United States. The students who have completed the Bachelor of Science Photography degree at Drexel have gone on to win The Pulitzer Prize for Photojournalism and The John Simon Guggenheim Fellowship for the arts (https://www.gf.org/fellows/all-fellows/jeffrey-stockbridge/). Their work has also been featured at AIPAD (https://searspeyton.com/exhibition/103/exhibition_works/7951/), one of the world's most prestigious annual photography events and in Times Square, New York City. In the Spring of 2020, Hannah Beier's Senior Thesis project, "Time Apart," was featured on the cover of Time Magazine (https://time.com/5839765/college-graduation-2020/). Along with the cover, she had a portfolio of images that were featured inside the magazine.

In addition, alumni have had their work featured in the New York Times Magazine (https://www.nytimes.com/2017/09/26/magazine/how-fake-news-turned-a-small-town-upside-down.html), Time Magazine, Philadelphia Magazine, Architectural Digest (https://www.architecturaldigest.com/story/inside-the-century-old-new-jersey-home-of-squawk-box-joe-kernen/), Martha Stewart Living, Newsweek, and Italian Vogue (https://www.vogue.it/en/photography/photostories/2017/05/26/inside-out-by-harris-mizrahi/). Along with being included in these publications, our alumni have their work included in the permanent collection of the Philadelphia Museum of Art (https://www.philamuseum.org/collections/permanent/337608.html? mulR=1528382777%7C1) and PAFA (https://www.pafa.org/museum/collection-artist/jeffrey-stockbridge/). The Drexel University Photography Program is without peer in regard to the student outcomes we have achieved.

Our Photography major is unique in the United States because of our teaching approach which blends a high degree of visual literacy together with cutting edge lessons in technology. We prepare our students for the marketplace by teaching every aspect of the medium, beginning in the darkroom, moving on to complex still digital techniques, and incorporating motion and video. Couple all these lessons with the value of having a six-month co-op in the industry and three courses dedicated to photographic business practices and you have the reason why our students have such a high placement rate after graduation.

The College's extensive photographic facilities (https://drexel.edu/westphal/academics/undergraduate/PHTO/Facilities/) are available to every photography major at Drexel.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

About the Program

Product Design combines the fields of art, engineering, technology, psychology, business, and sociology to design the products, services, and experiences people interact with every day. The program in Product Design focuses on creativity and intellect, while preparing students for careers in a range of product design fields including corporate product design, design consulting, design research, experiential design, entrepreneurial endeavors, sustainable product development, and social impact design initiatives.

The major in Product Design is centered on teaching students the technical skills to develop and design products, services, and experiences for a vast array of industries as well as the strategic problem-finding and problem-solving skills that can be applied across a variety of contexts. Product Design majors will learn design research methods focused on product development, commercialization, and user experience. It will also encourage diverse collaboration to address opportunities in sustainability, social impact design, health, technology, and interdisciplinary product development and innovation.

Students have the opportunity to create products ranging from consumer products, furniture, and toys to medical devices, wearable technology, and interactive experiences through design studio courses, competitions, and campus design jams. Students learn in state-of-the-art facilities that include studios, a modeling shop, digital fabrication lab (laser cutters, 3D printers, and CNC routers), and a smart product lab. The shops, labs, and studios are collaborative, design-centered spaces, built to promote and sustain the studio culture students will enter upon graduation.

Students enrolled in the Product Design major are encouraged to pursue a minor outside of Product Design which allows them to apply their design capabilities toward a specific area of expertise.

Screenwriting and Playwriting BS

Major: Screenwriting and Playwriting
Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 184.0 Co-op Options: One Co-op (Four years)

Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 50.0504 Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 27-3043

About the Program

Our students and faculty are storytellers at heart, connecting to the world around us through the tales we tell. The Screenwriting & Playwriting program immerses students in the discipline of writing for production: storytelling for filmed entertainment, the theater stage, and digital delivery. Whether you want to write blockbuster films, a two-hander for a black-box venue, or an episodic web series, the program will guide you with our experiential approach to instruction in small, collaborative classes. You'll graduate with the skills, experience, and confidence to pursue a career in a rewarding and competitive field.

Students acquire the essential skills of dramatic storytelling and professional best practices, then apply those abilities to the creation of scripts that tell their own uniquely compelling stories. The challenging curriculum offers multiple opportunities to see your work produced on both stage and screen and Drexel's pioneering co-op affords hands-on experience in the industry, working alongside professional artists. The Screenwriting & Playwriting program marks the beginning of the lifelong process of developing your writer's voice, a voice capable of narrating the story of our lives.

The Screenwriting and Playwriting program offers a minor in Screenwriting and a minor in Playwriting (p. 190).

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/faculty-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Co-op/Career Opportunities

Dramatic writing is writing for production—work intended for performance on the stage or screen. These days, "screen" can mean movie, TV, or computer, and the work can be anything from full stage plays to 15-second commercials to video game scripts. As the entertainment industry changes, so do the outlets for our students and graduates.

Co-op Experiences

By working for film and television production companies, theater organizations, entertainment management companies, magazines, advertising and public relations firms, and other professional writers, Screenwriting and Playwriting students gain valuable insights into how the entertainment industry works. In an industry where the process of building a career often begins with a few key contacts, the co-op program gives Drexel students the chance to begin shaping their own professional networks.

Screenwriting and Playwriting students secured co-op or post-graduation positions with:

- IM Global
- · Disney Video Animation
- · Marvel Comics
- · Lionsgate Films
- · Skyless Games
- · Arden Theater Company
- · Campbell's Soup
- · Marvel Studios
- · SyFy Network
- Nickelodeon
- · Dynamite Entertainment
- Prominent Hollywood talent managers
- · The Playwright's Center
- · Valiant Entertainment
- · Sciencefiction.com
- Major League Baseball Productions
- Panels.net
- · Voice of America
- Fantagraphics
- The production office of "Star Trek: Enterprise"

Visit the Drexel Steinbright Career Development Center (http://www.drexel.edu/scdc/) page for more detailed information on co-op and post-graduate opportunities.

Screenwriting and Playwriting Faculty

User Experience and Interaction Design BS

Major: User Experience and Interaction Design Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 188.0

Co-op Options: One Co-op (Four years); Three Co-op (Five years) Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 11.0801 Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 15-1250

NOTE: The four year option is not accepting applications; however, students can still choose to pursue the five year option.

About the Program

Technology and your future career prospects are evolving at lightning speeds. Where it was once as simple as pursuing "website design" or "programming," today's world offers—and demands—more. To truly succeed in tech, you need creativity, versatility, and an interdisciplinary skillset. You need to be able to see through the eyes of the user and understand projects from start to finish. You need to be a unicorn.

User Experience & Interaction Design (UXID) helps you get there.

By combining principles from a range of disciplines, UXID gives you the tools not only to understand technology but also the human principles underpinning it. You'll get exposure to:

- User Experience Design (UX) Researching and advocating the needs of people who will be using technologies, prototyping digital products, and working with agile methodologies
- User Interface Design (UI) Using tools, like the Adobe Creative Suite, to create visual experiences for technology products
- Interaction Design (IxD) —The design of behaviors, animations, and sounds for digital products
- Development Programming the code (HTML/CSS, JavaScript, PHP/MySQL, etc.) that makes products work in a variety of media (websites, apps, augmented and virtual reality, Internet of Things, etc.)
- Information Architecture (IA) Organizing and planning information systems for digital products
- Content Strategy The planning, creation, delivery, and governance of content, including text and imagery
- Project Management Managing work flows to keep teams on track

As a freshman, you learn the basics of user interface and interaction design. In sophomore year, you learn the coding and development skills to bring those designs to life. In the pre-junior year you will learn the fundamentals of user experience design and usability testing. Your junior and senior studies are focused on electives and interdisciplinary teamwork. In our 5-year sequence you will also have the opportunity for 3 six-month full-time work experiences within a company through Drexel's Cooperative Education program, and your capstone project will result in a full-scale, industry-level product launch.

By the end of this program, you'll have real-world experience, an enviable portfolio, and the highly adaptable skills to find your way in the uncertain, ever-evolving world of tech.

Co-op/Career Opportunities

Students who study User Experience and Interaction Design can move on to careers as web designers, graphic designers, digital media designers, user research and experience specialists, multimedia artists, interactive designers, web programmers, and web user interface designers.

Co-op Experiences

Some past co-op employers of User Experience and Interaction Design students include:

- · Academy of Natural Sciences
- Acensus
- COMCAST
- Craft
- EPAM
- Neuroflow
- · Night Kitchen Interactive
- Oracle
- Perpay
- Scoir
- SEPTA
- UNISYS
- · Urban Outfitters
- · Vanguard Group

Visit the Drexel Steinbright Career Development Center (http://drexel.edu/scdc/) webpage for more detailed information on co-op and post-graduate opportunities.

Facilities

Digital Media department facilities include a motion capture and green screen studio, a screening room, DSLR digital still cameras, HD video cameras and lighting equipment, triple boot PowerMac stations (Mac / Windows / Unix) with dual monitors, wacom tablets, game consoles, mobile devices, and two undergraduate open labs with 24/7 access.

Additionally, the program houses the RePlay Lab (http://replay.drexel.edu/facilities.html) in the URBN Center which is a collaborative effort between the Digital Media department and the Computer Science department (in the College of Computing & Informatics). At Drexel University, game development does not "live" in solely one department, and so mirrors the true nature of game development in commercial settings.

Undeclared Design & Media

About the Program

The Antoinette Westphal College of Media Arts & Design offers an Undeclared Design & Media option that allows incoming high school students to explore the wide range of academic programs in our college. The program is designed as a point of entry for prospective students who know they want to study creative disciplines at Westphal but aren't sure which of our sixteen undergraduate co-op programs is right for them. It gives students the ability to enroll in their freshman year of college and take a one-year sequence of courses, comprehensive career counseling, and academic advising that will help them discover their major without losing valuable time and money. No later than the end of spring term in the first academic year, students are required to select an appropriate major which will lead to a bachelor's degree.

Major placement is subject to meeting the program's requirements and space availability in the desired program. Students in this program may not track into the Music Industry or 2+4 Architecture programs. This program is not available to transfer students.

For more information about this program, please visit the Westphal Undeclared (https://drexel.edu/westphal/academics/undergraduate/undeclared/) web page.

Admission Requirements

The College Recruitment Office will review applications for the Undeclared option. Admissions requirements will be average Westphal requirements (GPA – 3.0 /SAT- 1100). Portfolio is optional

Westphal Studies Program BS

Major: Westphal Studies

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 180.0

Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 50.0101 Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 27-1019

About the Program

The Westphal Studies program provides an individualized course of study initiated by a student. The student must have completed two terms of their junior year in an Antoinette Westphal College of Media Arts and Design major to be eligible for admission into this major.

A small number of students in the Antoinette Westphal College of Media Arts and Design decide that their goals lie at the periphery of the major or the intersection between several majors, and would be served by more latitude than offered in the highly specified courses in their major. For these students, the Westphal Studies program major broadens future career goals and allows exploration combined with a focused exposure to a second field. It acknowledges the specialization that is characteristic of the majors in the college and the expectations of the professional fields for which our students are being prepared. Simultaneously, it recognizes the breadth and rapidly changing nature of many disciplines and permits a student who has acquired a basic working knowledge of a specific aspect of media arts and design to investigate a clearly defined alternative.

Admission to the program is limited to currently matriculated College of Media Arts and Design students who have completed the major-intensive sophomore year and experienced a co-op placement or completed their junior-year courses. The following items are required as part of the application:

- · A student-generated, individualized plan of study, developed with and signed by a member of the Westphal Studies Program Advisors Committee
- · A statement in writing of the student's goals in applying to the major and the rationale of how the proposed plan of study addresses those goals
- · A definition of appropriate co-operative education placement if the student has not completed a six-month employment in the field of their major
- · A letter from the student's current program director

Approval by the Westphal Studies Program Advisors Committee is required for admission to the major; it is not automatic upon request. The committee must be convinced by the validity of the applicant's reasons for applying, the proposed study plan and accompanying documentation. Details about the application procedure may be obtained from the director of Westphal Studies Program.

Recommended Plan of Study

This program requires an individualized plan of study. Students sign off on this agreed-upon plan with the director of the Westphal Studies program. A student must have completed two terms of junior year in a College of Media Arts and Design major to be eligible for admission into this major.

The student, in consultation with their advisor and the director of the program, devises a personalized interdisciplinary study plan. The approved plan of study provides a rationale for the concentration and how the elective credits are to be used. This plan of study must be completed and approved before admission into the major.

Animation and Visual Effects BS / Digital Media MS

Major: Animation & Visual Effects and Digital Media

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS) and Master of Science (MS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 232.0

Co-op Options: Three Co-op (Five years); One Co-op (Five years) BS Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 10.0304 BS Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 27-1014 MS Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 11.0801 MS Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 15-1134

About the Program

The program is a natural extension of our undergraduate program in Animation and Visual Effects and challenges students to push beyond what's known and into what's possible. It combines research with applicable skills in 21st century media applications and offers a mix of academic coursework and project-related activities in advanced digital design, including 3-D modeling, animation, interactivity, gaming and digital media history, theory, and methods.

Additional Information

To find out more about this major, visit the Westphal College's Animation & Visual Effects Major (http://www.drexel.edu/westphal/academics/undergraduate/ANIM/) webpage.

Admission Requirements

Students who wish to enter the accelerated program are required to have a minimum GPA of 3.5 and between 70.0 and 120.0 credits of completed undergraduate coursework.

Acceptance into the accelerated program is decided by the program director of the Digital Media MS program in consultation with the undergraduate program director in Animation and Visual Effects as well as the Department's Graduate Admissions Committee.

Main criteria for acceptance is an evaluation of the student's prior academic performance and the student's likelihood of success within the program.

- Co-op cycles may vary. Students are assigned a co-op cycle (fall/winter, spring/summer, summer-only) based on their co-op program (4-year, 5-year) and major.
  - COOP 101 registration is determined by the co-op cycle assigned and may be scheduled in a different term. Select students may be eligible to take COOP 001 in place of COOP 101.
- Select from 100-499 level courses, including T380-T480 in AFAS, ARCH, ARTH, COM, DANC, ENGL, FMST, GST, HIST, INTR, IST, JWST, LANG, LING, MENA, MUSC, PHIL, PHTO, PPE, PBHL, RELS, SCRP, THTR, TVST, VSCM, WGST, WRIT.
- Select from 100-499 level courses, including T380-T480, in AFAS, ANTH, CJS, CS, ECON, ENSS, ENVS, PSCI, PSY, PBHL, SOC, WGST.
- DIGM 490 and DIGM 491 are repeated three times each to complete the DIGM Capstone Senior Project sequence. †
- †† DIGM 540 is repeated two times.
- Select 9.0 credits from 500-600 level courses, including Special Topics (T580 and T680) in ANIM, CS, DIGM, DSRE, GMAP, IDM, and INFO.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Sample Plan of Study

4+1, 1 co-op (Spring/Summer) (Accelerated program completed in 5 years)

Students complete undergraduate requirements in four years, then convert to graduate status in the fifth and final year.

Architectural Studies BS / Urban Strategy MS

Major: Architectural Studies and Urban Strategy

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS) and Master of Science (MS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 229.0

Co-op Options: No-Co-op (Five years); One Co-op (Five years) BS Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 04.0803 BS Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 25-1031 MS Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 45.1201 MS Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 19-3051

About the Program

The Bachelor of Science in Architectural Studies degree offers an introduction to architecture while affording students the flexibility to customize their studies based on their interest in the realm of design and the built environment. The program encompasses foundation courses in the applied and social sciences, the humanities, and a range of architecture courses to prepare students to give students an understanding of the discipline. At the heart of the curriculum are the introductory-level design studios where students are challenged to apply their knowledge acquired from the above disciplines to consequential design problems.

As an art, a technical craft and an ethical practice, Architecture is the culturally responsible design and production of buildings that are functional, sustainable, inspiring, and responsive to their physical and social contexts. Students have the opportunity to reinforce their skills in the field by opting to participate in Drexel's signature coop program, giving students the opportunity to work full-time in an architecture or design firm or related fields either locally, nationally or internationally. The BS in Architectural Studies program prepares students for entry level employment in architecture and in fields related to architecture, However this program is not NAAB accredited and does not directly prepare for architectural licensure and registration.

The pre-professional BS in Arch Studies degree creates the foundation in the field of architecture as preparation for continued education in a professional NAAB accredited graduate degree program. It is also the ideal foundation for specialization in other related disciplines such as design research, urban strategy, interior architecture and design, construction management, real estate development, digital media and animation.

The MS in Urban Strategy program is a cross-disciplinary, 48.0 credit master's degree designed to prepare students to become 21st century urbanists equipped to collaboratively and creatively solve complex multi-faceted urban challenges on all levels: locally, nationally and globally. The program boasts a cross-disciplinary curriculum focused on strategy, problem solving, and collaboration in the domains of urban planning, design, health, engineering, policy, community and economic development and sociology.

Admission Requirements

BS Architectural Studies:

- The admission requirements will be similar to those admitted to the Architecture Program; 1250+/- SAT scores and 3.3+/- high school GPA.
- Applicants should submit eight to 12 pieces of work in a variety of media that demonstrate a balance of technique and concept. Portfolio guidelines for the B.S. Architectural Studies will follow the current Westphal College description.
- · Writing Supplement.

MS Urban Strategy

Transcripts: Provide official transcripts from all colleges and universities attended

Standardized Test Scores: GRE/MAT test scores are accepted and appreciated, but not required. TOEFL scores are required for international applicants or applicants who earned a degree outside the U.S. (minimum scores: 100/577/233). Scores will be reviewed based on section scores and total scores. IELTS scores may be submitted in lieu of TOEFL scores.

Essay: Please write approximately 500 words explaining your reasons for pursuing a degree from Drexel; your short-term and long-term career plans; and how your background, experience, interest, and/or values, when combined with a Drexel degree, will enable you to pursue these goals successfully.

Résumé: Please submit a resume electronically

Letters of Recommendation: Two letters of recommendation are required. To electronically request recommendations, you must list your recommenders and their contact information on your application. We advise that you follow up with your recommenders to ensure they received your recommendation request — they may need to check their junk mail folder. Additionally, it is your responsibility to confirm that your recommenders will submit letters by your application deadline and follow up with recommenders who have not completed their recommendations.

Academic Experience: You must have a minimum undergraduate GPA of 3.0 in your major.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/faculty-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Design & Merchanding BS / Business Administration MBA

Major: Design & Merchandising and Business Administration

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS) and Master of Business Administration (MBA)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 230.0 Co-op Options: One Co-op (Five years)

BS Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 50.0499
BS Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 13-1022
MBA Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 52.0201
MBA Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 11-1021

About the Program

Only available to Design & Merchandising majors, this accelerated dual degree program combines study in the areas of design & merchandising for the fashion lifestyle industries with the MBA degree. The program is designed to allow students to complete both the bachelor's degree and the Master of Business Administration degree in five years.

The program is offered to qualified students who apply for this option prior to the end of freshmen year or prior to the completion of 90.0 credits. All students who apply for this option must take the GMAT entrance exam. Incoming freshmen selected for this program will generally have a minimum of 1350 on the SAT, a GPA of 3.5 or better, and rank in the top 10% of their high school graduating class. A strong candidate for this program will have taken significant AP coursework while in high school.

BS/MBA students may be waived from two LeBow MBA courses, assuming a grade of B or better is earned in specified undergraduate courses. Students can review the Waiver Policies for the Statement of Curriculum Standing on the LeBow College's website for additional information. The above conditions hold only for fully accepted BS/MBA students as identified by Enrollment Management.

Additional Information

Students should visit the Westphal College of Media Arts and Design (http://www.drexel.edu/westphal/) for more information.

Admission Requirements

Additional requirements for the accelerated dual degree program include:

- A minimum of a 3.2 cumulative GPA must be maintained throughout the entire undergraduate portion of this program or the student will not be able to continue on to the MBA.
- Students must take the GMAT examination and achieve a minimum score of 570 prior to the end of the tenth term in order to continue in the program. It is recommended that students take the GMAT examination late in the student's third year.
- Students must submit an acceptable plan of study at least three terms before anticipated start of the graduate part of the program.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/faculty-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

About the Program

Only available to Design & Merchandising majors, this accelerated dual degree program combines study in the areas of design & merchandising, buying, and product development with the MS in Retail & Merchandising degree. The program is designed to allow students to complete both the bachelor's degree and the MS in Retail & Merchandising degree in five years.

Students will develop advanced skills to think critically, consider theoretical perspectives, research and solve problems, and implement innovative solutions in a dynamic global marketplace inclusive of lifestyle areas such as home, beauty and personal care, health and wellness, prepared foods, and pet products.

The program is structured with a year of core curriculum which can be started during a students senior year of their BS program, followed by a year of in-depth research, data collection, and completion of a project or thesis. Program content will challenge and engross students in the areas of analytical and critical-thinking, retail data analysis, visual and retail communication, technological movements, social media, and merchandising and retail "future" strategies through academic and applied learning online and in the field.

Graduates with a dual degree will pursue leadership roles and career growth in the areas of retail, merchandising, supply-chain, and brand industries.

Career Pathway electives enable students to pursue specific areas of study which compliment the Design & Merchandising major and the student's desired career pathway.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/faculty-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Digital Media and Virtual Production BS / Digital Media MS

Major: Digital Media and Virtual Production and Digital Media

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS) & Master of Science (MS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 232.0

Co-op Options: One Co-op (Five years); Three Co-op (Five years) BS Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 09.0702 BS Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 11-9199 MS Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 11.0801 MS Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 15-1134

About the Program

The program is a natural extension of our undergraduate program in Digital Media & Virtual Production and challenges students to push beyond what's known and into what's possible. It combines research with applicable skills in 21st century media applications and offers a mix of academic coursework and project-related activities in advanced digital design, including 3D modeling, animation, interactivity, gaming and digital media history, theory and methods.

Courses required by this major are predominantly conducted in-person, on campus. However, given the virtual focus of the major itself, a select number of courses are conducted via virtual modalities to engage a diverse population of instructors and students from beyond campus boundaries, as well as exercise the practice and application of virtual technologies and disciplines.

Additional Information

For more information about this major, visit the Westphal College's Digital Media & Virtual Production (https://drexel.edu/westphal/academics/undergraduate/virtual-reality/) web page.

Admission Requirements

Students who wish to enter the accelerated program are required to have a minimum GPA of 3.5 and between 70 and 120 credits of completed undergraduate coursework.

* Co-op cycles may vary. Students are assigned a co-op cycle (fall/winter, spring/summer, summer-only) based on their co-op program (4-year, 5-year) and major.

Acceptance into the accelerated program is decided by the program director of the Digital Media MS program in consultation with the undergraduate program director in Virtual Reality and Immersive Media as well as the Department's Graduate Admissions Committee.

Main criterium for acceptance is an evaluation of the student's prior academic performance and the student's likelihood of success within the program.

- * Co-op cycles may vary. Students are assigned a co-op cycle (fall/winter.spring/summer, summer only) based on their co-op program (4-year, 5-year) and major.
  - COOP 101 registration is determined by the co-op cycle assigned and may be scheduled in a different term. Select students may be eligible to take COOP 001 in place of COOP 101
- ** Select 9.0 credits from 100-499 level courses, including T380-480 in AFAS, ARTH, COM, ENGL, FMST, GST, HIST, IST, JWST, LANG, LING, MENA, MUSC, PHIL, PPE, PBHL, SCRP, THTR, TVST, WGST, WRIT, ARCH, DANC, INTR, PHTO, RELS, and VSCM.
- *** Select 9.0 credits from 100-499 level courses, including T380-T480, in AFAS, ANTH, CJS, CS, ECON, ENSS, ENVS, PSI, PSY, PBHL, SOC, and WGST
- † DIGM 490 and DIGM 491 are repeated 3 times each to complete the DIGM Capstone Senior Project sequence.
- †† DIGM 540 is repeated two times.
- ‡ Select 9.0 credits from 500-600 level courses, including special topics (T580 and T680), in ANIM, CS, DIGM, DSRE, GMAP, IDM, and INFO.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Sample Plan of Study

4+1, 1 co-op (Spring/Summer) (Accelerated program completed in 5 years)

Students complete undergraduate requirements in four years, then convert to graduate status in the fifth and final year.

Students majoring in Entertainment & Arts Management (4-year with co-op) may choose the BS in Entertainment & Arts Management/MBA program. This highly attractive program option combines study in the management of the arts and entertainment industries along with the MBA degree. The program is designed to allow students to complete both the bachelor's degree and the MBA in five years.

Additional Information

For more information about this major, visit the College's Entertainment & Arts Management (http://www.drexel.edu/westphal/academics/undergraduate/eam/) page.

Admission Requirements

Freshman applicants to the Entertainment & Arts Management program, with a combined Math and Critical Reading SAT score of 1300 and a 3.5 GPA, may apply for the BS/MBA program at the time of their initial application to Drexel University.

Current students may choose to apply to the program once they have achieved between 90.0 and 120.0 credits. All students who are accepted into the accelerated program must maintain a 3.2 GPA as an EAM undergraduate, and must submit two letters of recommendation and meet minimum GMAT requirements at the time of the application to the MBA program.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

Game Design and Production BS / Digital Media MS

Major: Game Design and Production & Digital Media

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS) & Master of Science (MS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 236.0

Co-op Options: One Co-op (Five years); Three Co-op (Five years)
BS Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 11.0899
BS Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 27-1014; 25-1199
MS Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 11.0801
MS Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 25-1134

About the Program

The program is a natural extension of our undergraduate program in Game Design and Production and challenges students to push beyond what's known and into what's possible. It combines research with applicable skills in 21st century media applications and offers a mix of academic coursework and project-related activities in advanced digital design, including 3-D modeling, animation, interactivity, gaming, and digital media history, theory, and methods.

Additional Information

To find out more about this major, visit the Westphal College's Game Design & Production Major (https://drexel.edu/westphal/academics/undergraduate/GDAP/) page.

Admission Requirements

Students who wish to enter the accelerated program are required to have a minimum GPA of 3.5 and between 70.0 and 120.0 credits of completed undergraduate coursework.

Acceptance into the accelerated program is decided by the program director of the Digital Media MS program in consultation with the undergraduate program director in Game Design and Production, as well as the Department's Graduate Admissions Committee.

Main criteria for acceptance is an evaluation of the student's prior academic performance and the student's likelihood of success within the program.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/faculty-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Interior Design BS / Design Research MS

Major: Interior Design and Design Research

Degrees Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS) and Master of Science (MS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 229.0 Co-op Options: One Co-op (Five years)

Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 50.0408 Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 27-1025

About the Program

This five-year path allows students to graduate with a Bachelor of Science in Interior Design, enhanced by a Master of Science in Design Research. Preparing them for a human-centered technology-driven professional career.

The undergraduate Interior Design program explores the behavioral, technological, environmental and aesthetic aspects of interior design within the context of increasingly more complex design projects. Combined with art and art history and general education requirements, a core of interior design courses creates a unique education at the forefront of design. Through academics grounded in problem-solving design studios, cooperative employment, and a dedicated faculty, the Interior Design program prepares students for leadership positions in the industry. The Interior Design program is consistently ranked among the top programs in the country, and in the survey by Design Intelligence of "America's Best Design Schools."

The BS interior design program is CIDA (Council for Interior Design Accreditation) and NASAD (National Association of Schools of Art & Design) accredited

The Design Research Masters program creates an arena for advanced students to explore and enhance their skills in design research areas that include Technology, Environmental Design and Health, including Community Based Design. Driven by the interdisciplinary nature of design, the program addresses the future in response to the emerging and complex designed environment. Designers operate in a world of increasing intricacy; this degree gives candidates a greater depth of knowledge and experience in topics relevant to present and future challenges in design.

The program focuses on providing a forum for students to pursue paths of inquiry and investigation within Design, Technology, Environmental Design and Health. This flexible program operates with a core curriculum that is built on, and augmented by, a customized set of electives, and the second year thesis sequence.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Interior Design BS / Interior Architecture MS

Major: Interior Design and Interior Architecture

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS) & Master of Science (MS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 226.0 Co-op Options: One Co-op (Five years)

Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 50.0408 Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 27-1025

About the Program

The BS Interior Design / MS Interior Architecture program offers a first-professional degree in interior design and a post-professional graduate degree for students looking to accelerate their career and/or specialize in an area of interior design. The BS Interior Design program explores the behavioral, technological, environmental and aesthetic aspects of interior design within the context of increasingly more complex design projects. Combined with art and art history and general education requirements, a core of interior design courses is completed along with a 6-month professional co-op. This undergraduate education prepares students to enter the interior design industry.

The MS Interior Architecture program reinforces design fundamentals; advances technical skills and conceptual approaches; allows for specialization in areas such as health/wellness, making/fabrication, or technology/representation; and culminates in a comprehensive thesis research and design project. Students select from a range of studio, seminar, and elective courses to create a program tailored to their professional interest.

Additional Information

For more information about this program, visit the College's Interior Design (http://www.drexel.edu/westphal/academics/undergraduate/INTR/) webpage.

Admission Requirements

Application for the Accelerated Degree Program must be made to the Department of Architecture, Design & Urbanism and the Graduate College after completing 90.0 credits, but no more than 120.0 credits.

Criteria for Admission

- Overall GPA of undergraduate coursework 3.2 minimum
- Overall GPA in interior design studio coursework 3.5 minimum
- Portfolio Review interior studio work and other visual work from other design courses
- · Essay Address reason for application, attitude towards profession, professional goals and leadership qualities you possess
- Two letters of recommendation speaking about your work ethic and leadership skills.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/faculty-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Interior Design BS / Urban Strategy MS

Major: Interior Design and Urban Strategy

Degrees Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS) and Master of Science (MS)

Calendar Type: Quarter Minimum Required Credits: 229 Co-op Options: One Co-op (Five years)

Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 50.0408 Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 27-1025

About the Program

This five-year path allows students to graduate with a Bachelor of Science in Interior Design, enhanced by a Master of Science in Urban Strategy, preparing them to problem solve and collaborate in the domains of urban planning, design, health, policy, community and economic development.

The Bachelor of Science in Interior Design program explores the behavioral, technological, environmental and aesthetic aspects of interior design within the context of increasingly more complex design projects. Combined with art and art history and general education requirements, a core of interior design courses creates a unique education at the forefront of design. Through academics grounded in problem-solving design studios, cooperative employment and a dedicated faculty, the Interior Design program prepares students for leadership positions in the industry. The Interior Design program is consistently ranked among the top programs in the country, and in the survey by Design Intelligence of "America's Best Design Schools."

The BS interior design program is CIDA (Council for Interior Design Accreditation) and NASAD (National Association of Schools of Art & Design) accredited.

The MS in Urban Strategy program is a cross-disciplinary, 48.0 credit master's degree designed to prepare students to become 21st century urbanists equipped to collaboratively and creatively solve complex multi-faceted urban challenges on all levels: locally, nationally and globally. The program boasts a cross-disciplinary curriculum focused on strategy, problem solving and collaboration in the domains of urban planning, design, health, engineering, policy, community and economic development and sociology.

Additional Information

For more information about this program, visit the College's Interior Design (http://www.drexel.edu/westphal/academics/undergraduate/INTR/) webpage.

Admission Requirements

Transcripts: Provide official transcripts from all colleges and universities attended

Standardized Test Scores: GRE/MAT test scores are accepted and appreciated, but not required. TOEFL scores are required for international applicants or applicants who earned a degree outside the U.S. (minimum scores: 100/577/233). Scores will be reviewed based on section scores and total scores. IELTS scores may be submitted in lieu of TOEFL scores.

Essay: Please write approximately 500 words explaining your reasons for pursuing a degree from Drexel; your short-term and long-term career plans; and how your background, experience, interest, and/or values, when combined with a Drexel degree, will enable you to pursue these goals successfully.

Résumé: Please submit a resume electronically

Letters of Recommendation: Two letters of recommendation are required. To electronically request recommendations, you must list your recommenders and their contact information on your application. We advise that you follow up with your recommenders to ensure they received your recommendation request — they may need to check their junk mail folder. Additionally, it is your responsibility to confirm that your recommenders will submit letters by your application deadline and follow up with recommenders who have not completed their recommendations.

Academic Experience: You must have a minimum undergraduate GPA of 3.0 in your major.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/).

philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 50.1003 Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 27-2041; 25-1121

About the Program

The BS in Music Industry/MBA program offers students a program that combines an undergraduate degree in music business and technology with an MBA degree awarded by the Drexel LeBow College of Business. The program is designed to allow students to complete both the BS and the Master of Business Administration degree in five years.

The program is offered to qualified students who apply for this option prior to the end of freshmen year or prior to the completion of 90.0 credits. All students who apply for this option must take the GMAT entrance exam.

Additional Information

For more information about this program, visit the College's Music Industry (https://drexel.edu/westphal/academics/undergraduate/mip/) page.

Admission Requirements

Students selected for this program will generally have a minimum of 1350 on the SAT, a GPA of 3.5 or better, and rank in the top 10% of their high school graduating class. A strong candidate for this program will have taken significant AP coursework while in high school.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/faculty-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

User Experience and Interaction Design BS / Digital Media MS

Major: User Experience and Interaction Design and Digital Media Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Science (BS) & Master of Science (MS)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 233.0

Co-op Options: One Co-op (Five years); Three Co-op (Five years) BS Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 09.0702 BS Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 11-9199 MS Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 11.0801 MS Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 15-1134

About the Program

The program is a natural extension of our undergraduate program in User Experience & Interaction Design (UXID) and challenges students to push beyond what's known and into what's possible. It combines research with applicable skills in 21st century media applications and offers a mix of academic coursework and project-related activities in advanced digital design, including 3D modeling, animation, interactivity, gaming and digital media history, theory and methods.

Additional Information

For more information about this program, please contact Troy Finamore twf23@drexel.edu.

Admission Requirements

Students who wish to enter the accelerated program are required to have a minimum GPA of 3.5 and between 70 and 120 credits of completed undergraduate coursework.

Acceptance into the accelerated program is decided by the program director of the Digital Media MS program in consultation with the undergraduate program director in Interactive Digital Media as well as the Department's Graduate Admissions Committee.

Main criterium for acceptance is an evaluation of the student's prior academic performance and the student's likelihood of success within the program.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Minor in Architecture

About the Minor

A minor in Architecture gives students majoring in other disciplines an opportunity to explore architecture through a coherent sequence of coursework. The minor in Architecture can also be used for preparation towards professional graduate study in this field. Interested students should consult the Architecture program director for course selection and scheduling.

The minor requires design studio courses, courses in architectural history, and architectural elective courses. No more than 9.0 credits from a student's major can be used to fulfill the minor requirements.

Art History BA

Major: Art History

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Arts (BA)

Calendar Type: Quarter

Minimum Required Credits: 181.0 Co-op Options: One Co-op (Four years)

Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code: 50.0703 Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code: 25-4011

About the Program

The history of art explores the meanings, values, and purposes of the visual arts within the historical cultures that create them. Works of fine and applied arts are understood not merely as aesthetic forms, but as expressions of the social, economic, scientific, religious, and political contexts that gave rise to them. The study of art history thus effectively serves the high purposes of a liberal education by equipping students with an understanding of world cultures and their histories from multiple disciplinary perspectives, and by encouraging the development of critical thinking, reading, research, and writing skills.

The art history program has a uniquely flexible curricular design in that it permits students to pursue art history as either a Bachelor of Arts or a Bachelor of Science (p. 21) degree. The BA degree is intended for students wishing to become professional art historians or who wish to supplement the art history curriculum with other courses leading to a specific career path. The BS degree is designed to allow students to combine the art history major with another major or to tailor the curriculum to their specific interests and aspirations. Both the BA and BS degrees require a total of 181.0 credit hours.

Bachelor of Arts

The BA degree requires 60.0 credit hours of art history, 75.0 credit hours of General Education courses, and 46.0 credit hours of Free Electives. The BA degree requires a strong component of Arts and Humanities courses in order to prepare students to enter the professional world of art historians by exposing them to critical reasoning, philosophy, anthropology, literature, world cultures, and foreign languages. The 46.0 credit hours of Free Electives can be used under faculty advisement to take additional art history courses, develop special competencies and areas of interest (e.g., race and gender studies; the histories of technology, science and philosophy; Asian or Africana studies; writing, literature, and criticism; design history; museum studies, etc.), or gain competencies in various applied or technical areas. This BA program requires two 3-month co-ops.

Co-op/Career Opportunities

Co-op Opportunities

Drexel's enviable geographical location in the northeast corridor of the United States provides a distinct advantage for an art history program because of the proximity of many important Museums, galleries, and auction houses. The Philadelphia Museum of Art, Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, Barnes Foundation, Rodin Museum, Institute of Contemporary Art, and the Penn Museum of Archeology and Anthropology are all local and easily accessible. Museums, galleries and auction houses in New York, Washington, Baltimore and other east coast centers are all within a reasonable distance by train, bus, or car. These institutions will offer students an abundance of opportunities for first-hand study of the major collections of art, architecture, and design. Proximity to these institutions can also provide for many choice opportunities for cooperative education experiences.

Some possibilities include:

- · Barnes Foundation
- · Philadelphia Museum of Art
- · Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts
- · American Philosophical Society
- · Moderne Gallery
- · Calderwood Gallery
- · RagoArts Auction House, Lambertville, NJ
- Twelve Gates Gallery for Contemporary South Asian Art
- · Newark Museum, NJ
- · Metropolitan Museum of Art
- · Brooklyn Museum
- · Mural Arts Program
- Asia Society NY
- · Christie's NY

Career Opportunities

A major in art history can prepare students for a wide variety of careers, as well as preparation for graduate school.

Possible career paths:

- · Museum Administrator
- Gallery Director
- Curator

* COOP 101 registration is determined by the co-op cycle assigned and may be scheduled in a different term. Select students may be eligible to take COOP 001 in place of COOP 101.

- · Museum Registrar
- Museum Educator
- · Art Consultant
- · Art Librarian
- Editor
- · Art and/or Intellectual Property Law
- · Artist Representative
- · Non-profit and governmental organizations
- Teacher (K-12)
- Teacher/Researcher (college and university)

As a particularly broad humanities discipline, art history serves as an outstanding pre-professional degree, providing excellent preparation for a wide variety of professions, such as law, medicine, education and library science.

Visit the Drexel Steinbright Career Development Center (http://www.drexel.edu/scdc/) page for more detailed information on co-op and post-graduate opportunities.

Minor in Dance

About the Minor

The minor in dance offers students an opportunity to explore dance in the studio through technique classes, and in the classroom through academic classes in dance. Participation in the dance ensemble class(s) is required, although performance with the ensemble is not. There is no audition for the dance minor program.

For more information about this minor, please visit the Westphal minors (https://drexel.edu/westphal/academics/minors/) web page.

About the Minor

Drexel's Entertainment & Arts Management (EAM) minor program gives students an introduction to the challenging industry of entertainment and arts business. The selected curriculum gives students a basis in entertainment finance, promotion, business planning, intellectual property rights, cultural literacy, and artist representation. Students in Drexel's EAM minor do not choose concentrations but rather take a core selection of classes and then select nine hours of electives in order to customize their learning.

The EAM minor is open to all undergraduate students in the Drexel University system; no prerequisites are required but departmental approval is needed.

Interested students should contact EAM professor Dr. Brea Heidelberg at bmh29@drexel.edu to schedule a meeting to discuss adding the EAM minor.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Minor in Film Studies

About the Minor

The Minor in Film Studies comprises courses that cover the major artistic and institutional developments in cinema from its late-nineteenth-century origins to the present. As these courses cover a variety of critical topics that are essential to any film studies curriculum—such as the study of major genres and auteurs, and the technologies and techniques contributing to the development of the medium, as well as the historical circumstances that influenced the cinema's evolution since its inception—they will establish a sound critical foundation for students to choose and to flourish in the subsequent courses required for the minor.

The Minor in Film Studies is open to all University students.

Minor in Fine Arts

About the Minor

The Fine Arts minor enables students to develop skills and concepts in the studio arts. Students in studio courses learn to combine skills in using tools and materials, visual theoretical concepts, and new technologies, all of which are necessary for design professionals.

To be eligible for the minor in Fine Arts, a student must have completed a minimum of 30.0 undergraduate credits, have a declared major, and have a minimum GPA of 2.7. The academic credit requirements for the minor must be completed at or before the time of graduation.

Basic design prerequisite courses are required for many programs in Westphal College and some of these may already have been taken for a student's major; however, only 9.0 credits of major-related coursework can be applied to the credits required for the minor in Fine Arts. Students with design credits from other schools or departments may be allowed to apply them to their prerequisite requirements only upon review by the Fine Arts minor faculty advisor.

For more information about this minor, please visit the Westphal minors (https://drexel.edu/westphal/academics/minors/) web page.

Minor in Graphic Design

About the Minor

The Graphic Design minor features individualized investigation of medium, content, context, and technology. It emphasizes critical thinking, analytical reasoning, written and oral communication skills, integrity, and ethics while instructing technology as a tool.

The minor offers coursework focusing on the connection between graphic design and technology with instruction in digital design tools, composition, corporate identity, typography, publication design, and photography. Recommended electives include Computer Imaging 2, Web Graphics I, Drawing, and Design History.

The Graphic Design minor is available to all Drexel University students and requires the completion of seven courses for a minimum of 24.0 credits. The Graphic Design minor takes 2+ years to complete.

Minor in Merchandising

About the Minor

The Merchandising Minor, administered by the Design & Merchandising program, provides core foundations for the fashion lifestyle industries including retail, ecommerce and wholesale operations, buying and merchandise planning. Students develop key competencies in brand strategy from concept to consumer including marketplace research, competitive analysis, retail math, assortment planning, product sourcing, inventory allocation and merchandising analytics. The curriculum allows the opportunity for individualized tailoring with course options in DSMR Special Topics including Sustainability & the Circular Economy, Beauty Merchandising, Retail Globalization, Immersive Media & Merchandising and Design and Merchandising Leadership. The minor is open to all Drexel University students and requires the completion of eight or nine courses for a minimum of 25.0 credits. Students will need at least 2 years to complete the minor requiring enrollment by the start of the Junior year.

All courses are currently open to all DSMR students. DSMR 231 and DSMR 232 are required for all students enrolled in DSMR and the Merchandising minor. Elective courses are offered only in certain quarters. Students are required to submit an approved plan of study with the minor advisor. All courses will be restricted to appropriately include the students enrolled in the Merchandising minor. As the industry and curriculum change, courses will be added and adapted accordingly.

NOTE: The minor was built to accommodate students from outside the major. DSMR students cannot do a major and a minor in the same field of study.

Minor in Photography

About the Minor

The minor in Photography gives students a thorough understanding of photographic practices using a combination of aesthetics and technology. This flexible minor has been developed to accommodate both Antoinette Westphal College of Media Arts and Design majors as well as majors from any other college. It is an excellent choice for students who are majoring in marketing, communications, and journalism. Many employers in these fields now routinely request that candidates have a good working knowledge of Photoshop and photographic practices.

Minor in Playwriting

About the Minor

The minor in Playwriting is intended to guide students from the acquisition of foundational playwriting skills through the completion of a full-length stage play. Fifteen of the credits are directly craft-oriented, teaching students what they need to know to translate their ideas into a format suitable for production on the stage; the other 9.0 credits are dedicated to background knowledge intended to inform creative thinking and develop a student's individual voice.

Students pursuing a Theater minor should note that common courses in the Playwriting minor make this course of study a relatively simple addition to their education.

The Playwriting minor is open to all students in the University.

Writing-Intensive Course Requirements

In order to graduate, all students must pass three writing-intensive courses after their freshman year. Two writing-intensive courses must be in a student's major. The third can be in any discipline. Students are advised to take one writing-intensive class each year, beginning with the sophomore year, and to avoid "clustering" these courses near the end of their matriculation. Transfer students need to meet with an academic advisor to review the number of writing-intensive courses required to graduate.

A "WI" next to a course in this catalog may indicate that this course can fulfill a writing-intensive requirement. For the most up-to-date list of writing-intensive courses being offered, students should check the Writing Intensive Course List (https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-programs/#writing-intensive-list) at the University Writing Program (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/). (http://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/english-philosophy/university-writing-program/drexel-writing-center/) Students scheduling their courses can also conduct a search for courses with the attribute "WI" to bring up a list of all writing-intensive courses available that term.

Minor in Product Design

About the Minor

Students in this minor—through a combination of three studio courses and four applied lecture courses—learn to combine skills in creative problem solving with a visual and human-centered product design process. Students develop product concepts and collaborate on the development of product ideas, including the creation and integration of new technologies, sustainability, health-care and socially responsible design, all of which are beneficial for design professionals.

The minor is specifically created to offer students a unique multi-disciplinary studio experience. Students will develop skills in the rapid visualization of ideas, creative problem solving, transformative design thinking and an understanding of the product development process in a collaborative setting. This minor is offered to all students having an interest in developing product ideas, including students from the College of Engineering, the LeBow College of Business, and the School of Biomedical Engineering as well as College of Media Arts and Design students who would like to add a product focus to their design degree.

Academic requirements

To be eligible for the minor in Product Design, a student must have completed a minimum of 30.0 undergraduate credits, have declared a major, and have a minimum GPA of 2.7. No prerequisite courses are required. Students may be encouraged to augment or prepare for this minor. A Spring/Summer co-op cycle is needed to enroll in required minor courses and the program will assist students to make a co-op cycle switch if necessary. Only upon review by the faculty advisor for the minor will students with design credits from other institutions or departments be allowed to apply these to the requirements.

Minor in Screenwriting

About the Minor

The minor in Screenwriting is intended to guide students from the acquisition of foundational screenwriting skills through the completion of a full-length script for film or television. Fifteen of the credits are directly craft-oriented, teaching students what they need to know to translate their ideas into a format suitable for production; the other 9.0 credits are dedicated to background knowledge intended to inform creative thinking and develop a student's individual voice.

Film and Video majors should note that they will be taking half of the courses in the Screenwriting minor as part of their degree requirements, making this minor a relatively simple addition to their education.

Minor in Somatics

About the Minor

An understanding of movement and body language has become increasingly important across many fields; in communication, corporate training, movement therapy, education, performance, rehabilitation, sport and fitness. Physical health, clear communication and effective leadership all rely on an awareness of how we carry our bodies through our lives. The Somatics Minor provides an in-depth study of the body, building from an understanding of its functional/structural basis, to its patterns and habits. We focus on how to interpret, analyze, and articulate somatic concepts and develop strategies for application.

Admission requirements

Minor in Sustainability in the Built Environment

About the Minor

The intent of this minor is to prepare students to engage and analyze future design challenges from a sustainability perspective. Students completing this program will be able to approach these challenges in a resourceful and insightful way with a solid foundation of sustainability principles. The emphasis on collaboration and transdisciplinary teamwork will allow students to serve as agile leaders in their future careers and be active participants in the critical discourse of their field.

In addition to the 15.0 credits of core courses, students select 9.0 credits of electives. The list below will be updated as new courses in sustainability become available. Students having a question about the inclusion of a course not currently listed as a possible elective should check with the coordinator for this minor.

Program Requirements

Required Courses
ARCH 315	Sustainable Built Environment I	3.0
ARCH 320	Sustainable Built Environment II	3.0
INTR 310	Sustainability: History, Theory and Critic	3.0
INTR 410	Collaborative Research in Sustainability	3.0
Arts and Sciences Course		3.0
Students must select one of	the following courses from the Arts and Science College or an approved substitute with the permission of the advisor for this minor:
ENVS 260	Environmental Science and Society
PHIL 341	Environmental Philosophy
SOC 244	Sociology of the Environment
Additional Electives *		9.0
Students select three of the f	following (or alternative options with the permission of the advisor for this minor):
ARCH 348 [WI]	Studies in Vernacular Architecture
ARCH 463	Case Studies in Architectural Technology
ARCH 465	Energy and Architecture
COM 317 [WI]	Environmental Communication
ENVS 260	Environmental Science and Society
INTR T180	Special Topics in Interior Design
INTR T280	Special Topics in Interior Design
INTR T380	Special Topics in Interior Design
INTR T480	Special Topics in Interior Design
PHIL 341	Environmental Philosophy
SOC 342	Global Environmental Movements
Total Credits		24.0

* The elective list will be updated as new courses in sustainability become available. If a student has questions regarding inclusion of a course not on this list, they should see the advisor for the Sustainability in the Built Environment Minor program.

Minor in User Experience and Interaction Design

About the Minor

The User Experience & Interaction Design minor requires the completion of eight courses (minimum 24.0 credits). The minor provides basic foundations in user interface design (UI), user experience design (UX), and interaction design (IXD), as applied to the design of digital interfaces (websites and mobile applications). This minor offers the opportunity for individualized tailoring according to the student's interests. It is open to all University students and is administered and advised by the User Experience & Interaction Design program.

For more information about this minor, please contact Troy Finamore twf23@drexel.edu.

Minor in Virtual Reality & Immersive Media

Introduction to Universe Commuter Interestion

About the Minor

The design and production of Virtual Reality (VR), Augmented Reality (AR), 360° Video and other Immersive Media formats requires a unique skill set—creative thinking, understanding of design, aesthetic sensitivity, and story telling are balanced with technical knowledge in areas such as 3D Computer Graphics, Animation, Visual Effects, interactivity, digital camera and image processing technologies. Additionally, critical thinking, the ability to collaborate effectively and communication skills are also integral to success in this rapidly expanding industry.

Drexel's Minor in Virtual Reality & Immersive Media provides a foundation in the principles, techniques and tools used in the design and production of virtual reality, augmented reality (VR/AR) and other forms of Immersive Media, with the opportunity for individualized tailoring according to the student's interests.

Admission Requirements

Open to students with a 3.0 GPA.
